Sand To Spectacle The Dubai Mall:

Sand to Spectacle: the Dubai Mall Nartano Lim, Widari Bahrin, 2016-06 The architects of atelier Arcau are always sensitive to the elements of the contexts where they are called on to work This could be almost the firm's hallmark if it were visible but it is a quality that precedes all visibility The Dubai Mall Nartano Lim, Widari Bahrin, 2012 Archinesia 03 Imelda Akmal, 2013-01-01 Does Architecture Shape the City or Vice Versa Architecture is a visual object that most strongly shape the face of any city And in this 3 volume Archinesia trying to discuss cities in their relation to architecture with seven urban experts to give an answer about the architecture of Jakarta Completed with written interview with Syed Sobri Zubir associate professor at Universiti Teknologi MARA UTM Malaysia to gain a clearer perspective of this edition's main topic Does Architecture Shape the City or Vice Versa Current Project From Southeast Asia Andra Matin DCM Jakarta Indra Tata Adilaras Wilkinson Eyre Architects DP Architects Ong Ong Singapore Bangkok Project Company Limited Openbox Thailand Vo Trong Nghia Vietnam a21 Studio Vietnam Moh Hack Partner Brunai The Social Imperative H. Koon Wee, 2021-07-21 This book contains multiple short critiques reflections and manifestos affording each contributing architect and intellectual the time and space to imagine new social paradigms in China Emerging from a tumultuous history of high culture and complex territorial conditions there is nothing straightforward about the social development of China The complexity of the social practices developed by architects and shapers of the built environment can be explained in part by the last three decades of an intensified adoption of the market economy by the Communist Party of China after an equally short three decades of closed door communist control There is no political meltdown like the democratization of the former Communist Bloc but there is a constant managing of discontent and resistance across China At the apex of the many creative and intellectual forces in China architects harbor and give form to many tactics of resistance Unfortunately architects are also the instruments and minds complicit with profit mongering developers and governments pursuing unchecked urbanization degradation of the environment exploitation of the marginalized and the creation of a very inequitable China This book begins with an introduction that defines the forms and tendencies of China's society as it stands today and it positions the work of a small number of architects and intellectuals who are at the forefront of reforming rethinking and even revolutionizing the Chinese society Beneath the veneer of a very successful China that the world readily acknowledges a quiet revolution is taking place within the realms of architecture and the city The social architectural and urban theories documented in this book are organized around the established canons of social actions from mobilizing laboring resisting and mediating to networking controlling rationalizing and aestheticizing This book aims to put the social agenda squarely back in the rapid development of the built environment in China This publication is the culmination of a three year study of social issues in the architecture and cities of China It involved visits to sites undergoing massive change discussions and debates among architects and critics reflections by practitioners about their own work and activists lobbying for social change

Supported by the non profit AA Asia the edition of the contents relied heavily on original input and exchanges between architects and theorists committed to China from Asia and beyond Since the 1990s AA Asia remains one of a few unique think tanks committed to the study of architecture and cities in Asia As an advocacy with strong academic roots it seeks to establish the differences across various postcolonial and Asian contexts and recalibrate the role of architecture in a technocratic era dominated by the global economy With Contributions of Robert Adams Lee Ambrozy Yung Ho Chang Chen Ling Jeremy Chia Cui Kai Dong Gong Dong Yugan Mario Gandelsonas Han Tao Andrei Harwell He Jianxiang Hu Yan Hua Li Huang Weiwen Huang Wenjing Jiang Jun Jeffrey Johnson Michael Kokora Kengo Kuma Andrew Lee Joan Leung Lye Li Han Li Hu Li Shiqiao Nartano Lim William S W Lim Liu Jiakun Liu Kecheng Liu Yichun Long Ying Ma Qingyun Robert Mangurian Meng Yan Ou Ning Alan Plattus Mary Ann Ray Daan Roggeveen Ruan Hao Eunice Seng Shi Jian Victor Su Sun Yimin Wang Fei Wang Shu Wang Yan H Koon Wee Shirley Woo Wu Gang Wu Liangyong Xu Tiantian Rocco Yim Yu Kongjian Zhang Ke Zhao Liang Zhou Yi Zhu Tao Zhu

Public Space In Urban Asia William Siew Wai Lim, 2013-12-16 Over the past few decades rapid urbanisation has threatened to erode public space especially in emerging economies Market forces that prioritise profit generation are allowed to construct venues of consumption in its place Though their physical appearance may resemble traditional public space in reality they are greatly restrictive and diminished in affordability accessibility and social meaning It is in this context that William SW Lim chairman of Asian Urban Lab has brought together architects designers historians sociologists and urbanists from the region to discuss public space in selected Asian cities Part One contains essays from participants from Chongqing Hong Kong Jakarta Kuala Lumpur Singapore and Taipei and observations from commentators Several essays by William SW Lim on the subject round off the discussion in Part Two The thoughtful essays in Public Space in Urban Asia emphasise how engaging with the present actuality of cities and public awareness of spatial justice in cities are crucial for it is the achievement of spatial justice that will help create a greater level of happiness across societies in our increasingly urbanised world

Architecture and Globalisation in the Persian Gulf Region Nasser Golzari, 2016-04-15 This is the first book ever to examine the architecture and urbanism of the Persian Gulf as a complete entity dealing equally with conditions on the eastern Iranian shoreline as in Arabic countries on the western side By inviting a range of architects and scholars to write about historical and contemporary influences on 14 cities along both Gulf coastlines the book traces the changes in architecture and human settlement in relation to environmental factors and particularity of place It provides an innovative contribution to the study of architecture and globalisation through a detailed investigation of this particular region investigating how buildings and cities are being shaped as a result A set of thematic essays at the end offer important insights into issues of globalisation urbanism and environmental design drawing from the experience of the Persian Gulf The outcome is a unique record of the Gulf in the early 21st century at a point when global capitalism is making major inroads and yet questions of architectural design climate change ecological sustainability cultural identity and so called Facebook Democracy are likewise shaking up the Middle Eastern region The book thus offers a fresh reading of the architecture and urbanism of a fascinating and often contradictory region while also showing how globalisation can be analysed in a more engaged and integrated manner

All the World's a Mall Rinny Gremaud, 2023-09-26 All the World's a Mall details a whirlwind world tour in five stops Edmonton Beijing Kuala Lumpur Dubai and Casablanca chosen because they are home to some of the biggest malls on the planet Built to contain over sized leisure and sales activities these disproportionate shopping malls are cities within cities wonderlands where visitors come from afar to do everything walk eat sleep watch swim ski skate ride photograph and of course buy Swiss journalist Rinny Gremaud recounts her travels to and through these fake gold and marble realms relaying building histories addressing questions around management and economics and providing portraits of the patrons employees and commercial executives she meets at these best of the world centres With a curious critical and sometimes ironic eye Gremaud reflects on the globalized commerce that drives the creation of these mirrored palaces and on their spectacular and senseless utopic vision of an acculturated world centered on brands and consumption Informative and thoughtful exhilarating and exhausting jet lagged and always air conditioned All the World's a Mall is a truly memorable hallucinatory adventure

Consuming the Entrepreneurial City Anne Cronin, Kevin Hetherington, 2008-04-07 This collection offers a global perspective on the changing character of cities and the increasing importance that consumer culture plays in defining their symbolic economies Increasingly forms of spectacle have come to shape how cities are imagined and to influence their character and the practices through which we know them from advertising and the selling of real estate to youth cultural consumption practices and forms of entrepreneurship to the regeneration of urban areas under the guise of the heritage industry and the development of a WiFi landscape Using examples of cities such as New York Sydney Atlantic City Barcelona Rio de Janeiro Douala Liverpool San Juan Berlin and Harbin this book illustrates how image and practice have become entangled in the performance of the symbolic economy It also argues that it is not just how the urban present is being shaped in this way that is significant to the development of cities but also that a prominent feature of their development has been the spectacular imagining of the past as heritage and through regeneration Yet the ghosts that this conjures up in practice offer us a possible form of political unsettlement and alternative ways of viewing cities that is only just beginning to be explored Through this important collection by some of the leading analysts of consumption cities and space Consuming the Entrepreneurial City offers a cutting edge analysis of the ways in which cities are developing and the implications this has for their future It is essential reading for students of Urban Studies Geography Sociology Cultural Studies Heritage Studies and Anthropology

The Form of Cities Alexander R. Cuthbert, 2008-04-15 The Form of Cities offers readers a considered theoretical introduction to the art of designing cities Demonstrates that cities are replete with symbolic values collective memory association and conflict Proposes a new theoretical understanding of urban design based in political economy Demonstrates different ways of conceptualising the city whether through aesthetics or the prism of gender for example Written in an engaging and jargon free style but retains a sophisticated interpretative edge Complements Designing Cities by the same author Blackwell 2003 Urban Design Thinking Kim Dovey,2016-06-02 Urban Design Thinking provides a conceptual toolkit for urban design Bridging the gap between theory and practice it shows how the design of our cities and urban spaces can be interpreted and informed through contemporary theories of urbanism architecture and spatial analysis Relating abstract ideas to real world examples and taking assemblage thinking as its critical framework the book introduces an array of key theoretical principles and demonstrates how theory is central to urban design critique and practice Thirty short chapters can be read alone or in sequence each opening a different kind of conceptual window onto how cities work and how they are transformed through design practice Chapters range from explorations of urban morphology typology meaning and place identity to particular issues such as urban design codes informal settlements globalization transit and creative clusters This book is essential reading for those engaged with the practice of urban design and planning as well as for anyone interested in the theoretical side of urbanism architecture and related disciplines San
