Women and the Military Ruth Margolies Beitler,Sarah M. Gerstein,2021-04-07 This addition to the Women and Society around the World series explores the roles challenges and accomplishments of women in the military in countries across the globe Around the world millions of men serve in their countries militaries be it on land on the seas or in the air But while many militaries have opened all positions to women even those on the front lines others remain closed Countries have cited a number of reasons for their policies including changing views of women and the military conscription and economic and demographic trends Written by a professor of comparative politics at the United States Military Academy at West Point and an active duty army major this book seeks to provide an understanding of women's roles in militaries around the world. The book is organized by region exploring societal and cultural views of masculinity and war as well as factors influencing changing views of women and the military including conscription and economic and demographic trends. Topics also include sexual harassment, recruitment and views on women's physicality and strength. High school students, undergraduates and general readers will find this cross-cultural study a fascinating and important resource.

Understanding Violence Against Women in Africa Francis Onditi, Josephine Odera, 2021-08-22. This textbook provides students across Social Sciences, Humanities, Politics and International Studies with an in-depth understanding of the issues, policies and strategies for addressing the symptoms and root causes of violence against women (VAW) in sub-Saharan Africa. This text uses the United Nations Security Council's Resolution 1325 UNSCR 1325 on Women, Peace and Security in Eastern and Southern Africa as a framework to present the causes and impacts of VAW and to trace the journey of sub-Saharan African countries toward gender equality. It also provides an overview of the policy and legislative frameworks that underpin the progress, challenges and achievements of addressing VAW based on four key pillars: prevention, protection, participation and relief and recovery. Chapters provide a wealth of knowledge as the book draws on academic literature, national, regional and international legislations and data collected from field research and makes use of end-of-chapter discussion questions and quick study guides. Students will come away equipped with the tools, resources and knowledge necessary to address and fix VAW in sub-Saharan Africa and beyond.

Women and Gender Perspectives in the Military Robert Egnell, Mayesha Alam, 2019-02-01. Women and Gender Perspectives in the Military compares the integration of women's gender perspectives and the women's peace and security agenda into the armed forces of eight countries plus NATO and United Nations peacekeeping operations. This book brings a much-needed cross-national analysis of how militaries have or have not improved gender balance, what has worked and what has not, and who have been the agents for change. The country cases examined are Sweden, the Netherlands, Canada, the United States, the United Kingdom, Israel, Australia and South Africa. Despite increased opportunities for women in the militaries of many countries and wider recognition of the value of including gender perspectives to enhance operational effectiveness, progress has encountered roadblocks even nearly twenty years after United Nations Security Council Resolution 1325 kicked off the women's peace and security agenda. Robert Egnell, Mayesha Alam and the contributors to this volume conclude that there is no single model for change that can be applied to every country, but the comparative findings reveal many policy-relevant lessons while advancing scholarship about women and gendered perspectives in the military.
