Defence Policy of Nigeria: Capability and Context Charles Quarker Dokubo, Celestine Oyom Bassey, 2011-01-20 This Reader provides a structurally coherent explanation and review of the magnified role conception and organizational task expansion for the Nigerian military establishment in foreign policy It argues essentially that one of the most problematic and intractable areas of public policy in Nigeria since the Civil War concerns the development of a professional defence establishment adequate to meet the challenges arising from the altered parameters of our security environment The correction of this condition is the primary motivation of the Armed Forces modernization and augmentation program that touches upon all elements of Nigeria s military power This Reader is at once a review and a critique of the major facets of this modernization and augmentation process of the Nigerian armed forces within the operative context of the changing dimension of threat perception and the strategic parameters that have guided Nigerian military planning since the Civil War in 1970

Women and Gender Perspectives in the Military Robert Egnell, Mayesha Alam, 2019-02-01 Women and Gender Perspectives in the Military compares the integration of women gender perspectives and the women peace and security agenda into the armed forces of eight countries plus NATO and United Nations peacekeeping operations This book brings a much needed crossnational analysis of how militaries have or have not improved gender balance what has worked and what has not and who have been the agents for change The country cases examined are Sweden the Netherlands Canada the United States the United Kingdom Israel Australia and South Africa Despite increased opportunities for women in the militaries of many countries and wider recognition of the value of including gender perspectives to enhance operational effectiveness progress has encountered roadblocks even nearly twenty years after United Nations Security Council Resolution 1325 kicked off the women peace and security agenda Robert Egnell Mayesha Alam and the contributors to this volume conclude that there is no single model for change that can be applied to every country but the comparative findings reveal many policy relevant lessons while advancing scholarship about women and gendered perspectives in the military HIV/AIDS and Society in South Africa Angela Ndinga-Muvumba, Robyn Pharoah, 2008 Do we know how HIV AIDS may affect different sectors of society possibly altering the course set for development This book presents a multidisciplinary overview of the discourse on HIV AIDS and explores the concept of human security and the global development agenda Noseweek ,2008 African Armed Forces Journal ,2005-02 Financial Mail ,2006-07 Politeia ,1997 English and Afrikaans with abstracts in English Dismissed Jakkie Cilliers,1996 South Africa Yearbook ,1998 Umrabulo ,2002
