Afro-Catholic Festivals in the

Americas Cécile Fromont,2019-04-24 This volume demonstrates how from the beginning of the Atlantic slave trade enslaved and free Africans in the Americas used Catholicism and Christian derived celebrations as spaces for autonomous cultural expression social organization and political empowerment Their appropriation of Catholic based celebrations calls into question the long held idea that Africans and their descendants in the diaspora either resignedly accepted Christianity or else transformed its religious rituals into syncretic objects of stealthy resistance In cities and on plantations throughout the Americas men and women of African birth or descent staged mock battles against heathens elected Christian queens and kings with great pageantry and gathered in festive rituals to express their devotion to saints Many of these traditions endure in the twenty first century The contributors to this volume draw connections between these Afro Catholic festivals observed from North America to South America and the Caribbean and their precedents in the early modern kingdom of Kongo one of the main regions of origin of men and women enslaved in the New World This transatlantic perspective offers a useful counterpoint to the Yoruba focus prevailing in studies of African diasporic religions and reveals how Kongo infused Catholicism constituted a site for the formation of black Atlantic tradition Afro Catholic Festivals in the Americas complicates the notion of Christianity as a European tool of domination and enhances our comprehension of the formation and trajectory of black religious culture on the American continent It will be of great interest to scholars of African diaspora religion Christianity and performance In addition to the editor the contributors include Kevin Dawson Jeroen Dewulf Junia Ferreira Furtado Michael Iyanaga Dianne M Stewart Miguel A Valerio and Lisa Voigt Relocating the Sacred Niyi

Afolabi,2022-11-01 Although Brazil is home to the largest African diaspora the religions of its African descendants have often been syncretized and submerged first under the force of colonialism and enslavement and later under the spurious banner of a harmonious national Brazilian character Relocating the Sacred argues that these religions nevertheless have been preserved and manifested in a strategic corpus of shifting masks and masquerades of Afro Brazilian identity Following the re Africanization process and black consciousness movement of the 1970s to 1990s Afro Brazilians have questioned racial democracy seeing how its claim to harmony actually dispossesses them of political power By embracing African deities as a source of creative inspiration and resistance Afro Brazilians have appropriated syncretism as a means of not only popularizing African culture but also decolonizing themselves from the past shame of slavery This book maps the role of African heritage in and relocation of the sacred to three sites of Brazilian cultural production ritual altars literature and carnival culture Afro-Cuban Religions and the Arts Alan West-Durán,2024-12-10 Afro Cuban Religions and the Arts A

Nigerian Film Culture and the Idea of the Nation Tsaaio, James Tar, Ugochukwu,

Françoise, 2017-09-17 Collectively the essays brought together in this book represent a discursive confluence on Nollywood as a local film culture with a global character aspiration and reach The governing concern of the book is that texts including film texts are animated by a particular sociology and anthropology which gives them concrete existence and meaning The book argues that Nollywood the Nigerian video film text is deeply rooted in the sub soil of its social and cultural milieu Nollywood is therefore engaged in the relentless negotiation and re negotiation of the everyday lives of the people against the backdrop of their cultural traditions social contradictions and the politics of their ethnic national identity longing and belonging The essays weave an intricate and delicate argument about the critical role of Nollywood to the idea of nationhood and the logic of its narration with implications for language politics and culture in Africa The book is a valuable addition to the critical discourse on the important place of film and cinema studies in national engineering processes
