Upanishads, 2005-12 Kalki Purana B.K. Chaturvedi, 2024-05-28 Puranas are almost like an encyclopaedia listing the human achievements in this part of the world till the time they were edited or compiled In every cycle of time the master editor called Vedavyas emerges to edit vet and compile these records Their significance is enormous even in the present as they give a peep into the distant past of Hindus when the world was evolving and the psyche of the race was being formed These puranas record the arguments that make us to decide as to what is holy and what is vile what is good and what is bad By going through them we can compare our present day jurisprudence vis vis the ancient norms Apart from that they are a huge store house of information conceiving every subject under the sun It is with the view of unearthing these gems that the present series of the puranas has been planned Dying, Death and Bereavement in a British Hindu Community

Shirley Firth, 1997 This study is an exploration of the religious beliefs attitudes traditions and rituals of a British hindu community with respect to dying death and bereavement The observations of this community are compared with material obtained during three months of fieldwork in India and ethnographic sources The primary focus of this study is on individual Hindus seen in the context of their family and community their beliefs experiences and perceptions about death and their reactions to the changes that take place It also examines the process of adaptation and change in the death rituals and the role of the pandits in maintaining continuity The first part of this study sets the context introducing the issues confronting Hindus facing death and bereavement in Britain It discusses theoretical issues in a multicultural study as well as beliefs about death and life after death In the second part Hindu ritual practices around death are explored using a model of nine stages from preparation for death to the final post mortem and annual ancestral rituals The third part explores the social and psychological dimensions of death grief and mourning the implications of death in hospital and the professional and bureaucratic issues which affect Hindu deaths in Britain The social aspects of mourning are discussed with reference to pollution the role of the family and community young people and widows Finally the author examines the implications of social changes for British Hindus and for those who are involved with them in the caring professions Message of the
