Copyright Office, 1933 Dictionary Catalog of the Harris Collection of American Poetry and Plays, Brown University Library, Providence, Rhode Island Brown University. Library, 1972 The Cambridge bibliography of English literature. 3. 1800 - 1900 Frederick Wilse Bateson, 1940 Latin American Poetry Gordon Brotherston, 1975-11-13 This study considers the ways Spanish American and Brazilian poets differ from their European counterparts by considering Latin American as more than a perfunctory epithet It sets the orthodox Latin tradition of the subcontinent against others that have survived or grown up after the conquest then pays attention to those poets who from Independence have striven to express a specifically American moral and geographical identity Dr Brotherson focuses on Modernismo or the coming of age of poetry in Spanish America and Brazil and the importance of the movements associated with it He considers Cesar Vallejo and Pablo Neruda probably the greatest of the selection Octavio Paz and modern poets who have reacted differently to the idea that Latin America might now be thought to have not just a geographical but a nascent political identity of its own Poems are liberally quoted and treated as entities in their own right Widener Library Shelflist: American literature Harvard University. Library, 1970 The Retail Bookseller, 1932 Santiago's Children Steve Reifenberg, 2012-11-29 Runner up Bronze Medal Independent Publishers Book Awards Memoir Autobiography Category 2009 Unclear about his future career path Steve Reifenberg found himself in the early 1980s working at a small orphanage in a poor neighborhood in Santiago Chile where a determined single woman was trying to create a stable home for a dozen or so children who had been abandoned or abused With little more than good intentions and very limited Spanish the 23 year old Reifenberg plunged into the life of the Hogar Domingo Savio becoming a foster father to kids who stretched his capacities for compassion and understanding in ways he never could have imagined back in the United States In this beautifully written memoir Reifenberg recalls his two years at the Hogar Domingo Savio His vivid descriptions create indelible portraits of a dozen remarkable kids mature beyond her years Veronica sullen unresponsive Marcelo and irrepressible toddler Andrés among them As Reifenberg learns more about the children's circumstances he begins to see the bigger picture of life in Chile at a crucial moment in its history The early 1980s were a time of economic crisis and political uprising against the brutal military dictatorship of Augusto Pinochet Reifenberg skillfully interweaves the story of the orphanage with the broader national and international forces that dramatically impact the lives of the kids By the end of Santiago's Children Reifenberg has told an engrossing story not only of his own coming of age but also of the courage and resilience of the poorest and most vulnerable residents of Latin America The Library News Newark Public Library, 1895 The Dial Francis Fisher Browne, 1899 Verses Against the Darkness Greg Dawes, 2006 Verses Against the Darkness offers a new assessment of Pablo Neruda's poetry by looking at the intersection of his aesthetic method and political radicalism from 1925 to 1954 It challenges the canonical view that Neruda was a gifted verse maker who in 1936 let himself be carried away by the excesses of communist politics. Instead by focusing primarily on Tercera residencia 1935-1945 Greg Dawes argues for an uneven yet steady evolution and continuity in Neruda's work. Politics and morality Dawes relies on historical accounts, biographies, literary history and criticism and on Neruda's political and aesthetic theory to prove that his poetry became contrary to received critical opinion more sophisticated literarily and politically as he became more radicalized during the Spanish Civil War and World War II and as he developed his dialectical realism or guided spontaneity. Greg Dawes is Associate Professor of Latin American and World Literatures at North Carolina State University and is the editor of the on line journal A contracorriente. Lorca in English Andrew Samuel Walsh, 2020-06-02 Lorca in English examines the evolution of translations of Federico García Lorca into English as a case of rewriting and manipulation through politically and ideologically motivated translation. As new translations of Federico García Lorca continue to appear in the English speaking world and his literary reputation continues to be rewritten through these successive re-translations this book explores the reasons for this constant desire to rewrite Lorca since the time of his murder right into the 21st century. From his representation as the quintessential Spanish Republican martyr to his adoption through translation by the Beat Generation to his elevation to iconic status within the Queer Studies movement this volume analyzes the reasons for this evolution and examines the current direction into which this canonical author is heading in the English speaking world. Catherine of Lancaster and her Religious Court Poets Lesley Twomey, 2024-07-18 This book offers an integrated study of the English princess and Castilian queen Catherine of Lancaster 1373-1418 drawing on available archival, architectural and poetic sources in England and Spain. Catherine's mother Queen of Castile in exile and father the powerful military commander John of Gaunt raised her to take the Castilian throne. This volume connects Catherine's early life providing insights into those who promoted her cause from birth as Princess of Castile and her later life as Princess of Asturias then Queen consort and finally Dowager and Co-regent of Castile. Her influence on the Castilian court's poetic circles has not previously been connected to her English heritage. Poetry written about her and influenced by her was compiled into a songbook presented to her son Juan II. The book brings new understanding of the role an Englishwoman played in Trastámara Castile's turbulent history. The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm, James Louis Garvin, 1926 The Cambridge Companion to Latin American Poetry Stephen M. Hart, 2018-03-22 This Companion provides a chronological survey of Latin American poetry analysis of modern trends and six succinct essays on the major figures. The New International Encyclopædia Daniel Coit Gilman, Harry Thurston Peck, Frank Moore Colby, 1907 Book News, 1899 Encyclopedia of Latin American and Caribbean Literature, 1900-2003 Daniel Balderston, Mike Gonzalez, 2004 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Latin American and Caribbean Literature 1900-2003 draws together entries on all aspects of literature including authors, critics, major works, magazines, genres, schools and movements in these regions from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day.
