Table in the Orchard, A Michelle Crawford, 2015-05 In the tradition of life changing memoirs like Salvation Creek a food obsessed former city slicker creates her own slice of heaven in a rambling old country house on the Apple Isle We've been there and done that with slow cooking gurus celebrity cooks master chefs and more than a few tree change books and there are many pretty lifestyle books and blogs out there but nothing is as instantly lipsmackingly appealing as Michelle Crawford's personal slice of heaven in Tasmania Organising cocktail parties at the Opera House and drinking French champagne sounds perfectly glamorous and for a long time it was for Michelle But after the birth of her daughter Elsa the glamour started to fade and she developed a yearning for country life that could no longer be ignored She wanted to grow her own food and even better learn how to cook it She dreamed of wearing gum boots every day and creating a country childhood for her daughter an Enid Blyton childhood filled with outdoor adventures good things to eat and lashings of ginger beer Just a glimpse at her hugobondelsa blog shows how she has made that dream a reality and her knack for finding beauty in the simple things of life She inspires us to think maybe we could conjure some of the daily magic she performs so effortlessly while enjoying her better than good life in a rambling old farmhouse in the Huon Valley in Tasmania Add glorious colour images and the sorts of recipes that have made Michelle's blog so popular and you have a beautiful colour book to treasure that reminds us all about how seductive a little bit of slow living might be Thanks to Michelle you can but dream from the safety of our armchairs especially about the oodles of homemade cake but in the meantime her story may help you take some baby steps and be inspired to make your own jam or hot crumpets or maybe move to Tasmania
