Contemporary Sport Management, 5E Pedersen, Paul M., Thibault, Lucie, 2014-06-18 Contemporary Sport Management Fifth provides students with an overview of sport management by presenting extensive discussions of the foundational aspects of the profession and current topics from the field. The fifth edition continues to engage students with a full color format and an integrated web study guide. The text also discusses the role of social media in revolutionizing the industry and the significance of sport as an international institution. Students will learn the relevance of legal, sociocultural, historical, political, and psychological concepts to the management of sport, the professional skills and attitudes of successful sport managers, and ways in which the globalization of sport continues to affect sport management professions.

Sport Development in the United States Peter Smolianov, Dwight Zakus, Joseph Gallo, 2014-09-15 The development of both elite high performance sport and mass participation grassroots level sport are central concerns for governments and sports governing bodies. This important new study is the first to closely examine the challenges and opportunities for sports development in the United States, a global sporting giant with a unique market driven sporting landscape. Presenting an innovative model of integrated sports development, the book explores the inter relationship between elite and mass sport across history, drawing on comparative international examples from Australia to the former USSR and Eastern bloc countries. At the heart of the book is an in depth empirical study of three traditional and emerging sports in the US: tennis, soccer, and rugby, that offer important lessons on the development of elite sport methods for increasing participation and the establishment of new sports in new markets. No other book has attempted to model sports development in the United States in such depth before. Therefore, this should be essential reading for all students, researchers, administrators, or policy makers with an interest in sports development, sports management, sports policy, or comparative international sport studies.
