When preparing for an annual review, you'll want to compose a self evaluation that includes both your strong points and areas in need of improvement. This exercise is meant to help you evaluate your strong suits, as well as identify areas in need of improvement. To devise such a document, you'll need to include certain key points that will help you come up with an overall performance improvement strategy.

- My Daily Work Ethic: Ask yourself what motivates you to do a good job. What drives you to succeed in your given field? Make a list of one-word items that describe your work ethic. Next, come up with examples that quantify the application of these words. Examples of the words might be: driven, hard-working, determined or highly motivated. Examples of the results might be: signed contracts with three new customers last quarter or overseas implementation of a new system last year.
- My Goals: Define your workplace goals. What is it that you want to accomplish in the next 18 months? Do you want a promotion? Are you striving to climb the corporate ladder? Where do you see yourself in five years? Use the answers to these questions to come up with your workplace goals.
- Next, evaluate the steps you are taking to reach these goals. Are you working daily toward your goals? A good method for self evaluation when it comes to inching your way toward a specific goal is to rate your job performance in relation to daily activities that
