

PERSONAL STATEMENT FOR GRADUATE SCHOOL

I have always loved beauty, fashion, and, more importantly, aesthetics. Concerning patterns, trends, and innovations, which steadily evolve, I have always had a passion for these while growing up. As a result, I have been able to channel my career trajectory in this direction subconsciously. However, I never knew the exact specialty to pursue until my most recent role as a counter manager at *. One of my major responsibilities was displaying brands and making them visually appealing. Even though I was praised for my exquisite performance, I always felt something was wrong. So, I took a break to earn a diploma in Visual Merchandising, and afterward, I began noticing something.

Walking down the street, I keep looking at buildings. The designer inside me always looks for something elegant. Instead, I keep seeing rows of similar boring structures – no aesthetics, no 'wow' factor, nothing exciting. As someone passionate about visual display, design, fashion, and beauty, I could find a connection between people and these buildings. They need to be properly spaced apart for people to enjoy them and, at the same time, be their occupants. I am eager to make discoveries that will aid humanity in making the world a better place. This longing to create perfect buildings continued to grow in me, and then I realized what specialty I need to pursue. It is Interior Architecture and Design, and I have chosen the University of * to obtain this advanced degree.

Given an opportunity to pursue this program in your institution, I hope to get relevant and useful tools that will, to a significant extent, help me succeed in gaining extensive knowledge and vast experience that will contribute to my development. It is well known that your institution has an excellent faculty, which will expose me to a plethora of research options to advance myself in design and aesthetics and keep abreast of this discipline's historical context. I am sufficiently qualified to be offered this opportunity because I have acquired much experience and design knowledge for over eight years. I wish to get a priceless education and sharpen my social and intellectual capabilities in light of the mentioned things. In my opinion, no other university can offer me such a chance.

The Psychology Major's Handbook , Teaching Justice Kristi Holsinger, 2012 Teaching Justice explores the role that teaching and learning in higher education can play in solving problems of social injustice. Examining a range of approaches to education it considers the challenges that exist in teaching about justice drawing on extensive empirical data gathered amongst college lecturers and professors as well as the author's own experience. With an analysis of the strategies commonly used this book will shed light on the manner in which students can be engaged in activism and concerned with issues of social injustice. By overcoming apathy and engaging students with social problems education can thus address matters of injustice and begin to affect change. Presenting extensive international research and insightful analyses Teaching Justice reveals the classroom and the lecture theatre to be important sites in the pursuit of social justice and will appeal to teachers and researchers with interests in social problems education and educational methods and criminal justice as well as community engagement and service learning outside the classroom.

Addressing Offending Behaviour Simon Green, Elizabeth Lancaster, Simon Feasey, 2013-05-13 Offending behaviour is one of the most talked about issues in contemporary society. What can be done to stop people reoffending? What can be done to help people escape their criminal lifestyles? This book aims to review and analyse the different ways in which these questions are addressed in practice drawing upon the expertise of academics and practitioners. The book provides a critical reference text for practitioners students and researchers interested in devising the most effective means of addressing offending behaviour. Its focus is on the actual work undertaken with offenders and draws upon generic issues of practice applicable across the voluntary community and statutory sectors. Addressing Offending Behaviour aims to bridge the gap between practice and research. It explores a wide range of innovative techniques for offender intervention along with some of the most challenging academic theories It also considers the wider social political and legal context in which this work takes place and explores the values and bias which operate at both individual and institutional levels It will be key reading for both students and practitioners involved in the fields of criminology and criminal justice law policing probation prisons youth justice and social work Multilateral Development Bank Lending for Africa United States.
