The Islamic Context Of The Thousand And One Nights:

The Islamic Context of The Thousand and One Nights Muhsin J. al-Musawi, 2009-05-22 In this fascinating study Muhsin J al Musawi shows how deeply Islamic heritage and culture is embedded in the tales of The Thousand and One Nights known to many as the Arabian Nights and how this integration invites readers to make an Islamic milieu Conservative Islam dismisses The Thousand and One Nights as facile popular literature and liberal views disregard the rich Islamic context of the text Approaching the text with a fresh and unbiased eye al Musawi reads the tales against Islamic schools of thought and theology and recovers persuasive historical evidence to reveal the cultural and religious struggle over Islam that drives the book's narrative tension and binds its seemingly fragmented stories Written by a number of authors over a stretch of centuries The Thousand and One Nights depicts a burgeoning urban Islamic culture in all its variety and complexity As al Musawi demonstrates the tales document their own places and periods of production reflecting the Islamic individual's growing exposure to a number of entertainments and temptations and their conflict with the obligations of faith Aimed at a diverse audience these stories follow a narrative arc that begins with corruption and ends with redemption conforming to a paradigm that concurs with the sociological and religious concerns of Islam and the Islamic state By emphasizing Islam in his analysis of these entertaining and instructional tales al Musawi not only illuminates the work's consistent equation between art and life but he also sheds light on its underlying narrative power His study offers a brilliant portrait of medieval Islam as well especially its social political and economic institutions and its unique practices of storytelling

The Annotated Arabian Nights: Tales from 1001 Nights (The Annotated Books) Paulo Lemos Horta, 2021-11-16 A n electric new translation Each page is adorned with illustrations and photographs from other translations and adaptations of the tales as well as a wonderfully detailed cascade of notes that illuminate the stories and their settings The most striking feature of the Arabic tales is their shifting registers prose rhymed prose poetry and Seale captures the movement between them beautifully Yasmine Al Sayyad New Yorker A magnificent and richly illustrated volume with a groundbreaking translation framed by new commentary and hundreds of images of the most famous story collection of all time A cornerstone of world literature and a monument to the power of storytelling the Arabian Nights has inspired countless authors from Charles Dickens and Edgar Allan Poe to Naguib Mahfouz Clarice Lispector and Angela Carter Now in this lavishly designed and illustrated edition of The Annotated Arabian Nights the acclaimed literary historian Paulo Lemos Horta and the brilliant poet and translator Yasmine Seale present a splendid new selection of tales from the Nights featuring treasured original stories as well as later additions including Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp and Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves and definitively bringing the Nights out of Victorian antiquarianism and into the twenty first century For centuries readers have been haunted by the homicidal King Shahriyar thrilled by gripping tales of Sinbad's seafaring adventures and held utterly exquisitely captive by Shahrazad's stories of passionate romances and otherworldly escapades Yet for too long the English speaking world has relied on dated translations by Richard Burton Edward Lane and other nineteenth century adventurers Seale's distinctly contemporary and lyrical translations break decisively with this masculine dynasty finally stripping away the deliberate exoticism of Orientalist renderings while reclaiming the vitality and delight of the stories as she works with equal skill in both Arabic and French Included within are famous tales from The Story of Sinbad the Sailor to The Story of the Fisherman and the Jinni as well as lesser known stories such as The Story of Dalila the Crafty in which the cunning heroine takes readers into the everyday life of merchants and shopkeepers in a crowded metropolis and The Story of the Merchant and the Jinni an example of a ransom frame tale in which stories are exchanged to save a life Grounded in the latest scholarship The Annotated Arabian Nights also incorporates the Hanna Diyab stories for centuries seen as French forgeries but now acknowledged largely as a result of Horta's pathbreaking research as being firmly rooted in the Arabic narrative tradition Horta not only takes us into the astonishing twists and turns of the stories evolution He also offers comprehensive notes on just about everything readers need to know to appreciate the tales in context and guides us through the origins of ghouls jinn and other supernatural elements that have always drawn in and delighted readers Beautifully illustrated throughout with art from Europe and the Arab and Persian world the latter often ignored in English language editions The Annotated Arabian Nights expands the visual dimensions of the stories revealing how the Nights have always been and still are in dialogue with fine artists With a poignant autobiographical foreword from best selling novelist Omar El Akkad and an illuminating afterword on the Middle Eastern roots of Hanna Diyab's tales from noted scholar Robert Irwin Horta and Seale have created a stunning edition of the Arabian Nights that will enchant and inform both devoted and novice readers alike

The Qur'an and the Aesthetics of Premodern Arabic Prose Sarah R. bin Tyeer, 2016-09-10 This book approaches the Qur'an as a primary source for delineating the definition of ugliness and by extension beauty and in turn establishing meaningful tools and terms for literary criticism within the discipline of classical Arabic literature adab Focusing on the aesthetic dimension of the Qur'an this methodology opens up new horizons for reading adab by reading the tradition from within the tradition and thereby examining issues of decontextualisation and the untranslatable This approach in turn invites Comparatists as well as Arabists to consider other means and perspectives for approaching adab besides the Bakhtinian carnival Applying this critical strategy to literary works as diverse as One Thousand and One Nights and The Epistle of Forgiveness Sarah R bin Tyeer aims to prove two major points how Bakhtin's aesthetics is anachronistic and therefore theoretically inappropriate when applied to certain literary works and how ultimately this literary methodology is sometimes used as a proxy for ungrounded and sometimes unfair arguments by other scholars Foreword by Angelika Neuwirth Professor of Quranic studies Freie University Berlin Germany The Sexual World of the Arabian Nights

comparative analysis of Arabic postcolonial autobiographical writing In Arabic Disclosures Muhsin J al Musawi investigates the genre of autobiography within the modern tradition of Arabic literary writing from the early 1920s to the present Al Musawi notes in the introduction that the purpose of this work is not to survey the entirety of autobiographical writing in modern Arabic but rather to apply a rigorously identified set of characteristics and approaches culled from a variety of theoretical studies of the genre to a particular set of autobiographical works in Arabic selected for their different methodologies varying historical contexts within which they were conceived and written and the equally varied lives experienced by the authors involved The book begins in the larger context of autobiographical space where the theories of Bourdieu Bachelard Bakhtin and Lefebvre are laid out and then considers the multiple ways in which a postcolonial awareness of space has impacted the writings of many of the authors whose works are examined Organized chronologically al Musawi begins with the earliest modern example of autobiographical work in h usayn s book translated into English as The Stream of Days Al Musawi studies some of the major pioneers in the development of modern Arabic thought and literary expression Jurj Zayd n M k l Nu aymah A mad Am n Sal mah M s Sayyid Qu b and untranslated works by the prominent critic and scholar amm d amm d the novelist liah Mamd and others He also examines the autobiographies of a number of women including Naw l al Sa d w and Fadw q n and fiction writers The book draws a map of Arab thought and culture in its multiple engagements with other cultures and will be useful for scholars and students of comparative literature Arabic studies and Middle Eastern studies intellectual thought and history Arabic Literature for the Classroom Mushin
