The Lausiatic History of Palladius Palladius, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1918 edition. Excerpt: day to exhort him and said to him Valens you are the victim of illusions Stop it And when he would not listen to his exhortations he retired 4 So the demon convinced that he was completely persuaded by his deception went away and disguised himself as the Saviour and came by night in a vision of a thousand angels bearing lamps and a fiery wheel in which it seemed that the Saviour appeared and one came in front of the others and said Christ has loved you because of your conduct and the freedom of your life and He has come to see you So go out of the cell do nothing else but look at his face from afar stoop down and worship and then go to your cell 5 So he went out and saw them in ranks carrying lamps and antichrist about a stade away and he fell down and worshipped Then the next day again he became so mad that he entered into the church and before the assembled brotherhood said I have no need of Communion for I have seen Christ to day Then the fathers bound him and put him in irons for a year and so cured him destroying his pride by their prayers and indifference and calmer mode of life As it is said Diseases are cured by their opposites 2 1 Stephen assumes purgatorial pains even for the righteous 6 But it is necessary to insert in this little book the lives of men like this for the safety of the readers in the same way as there was the tree of knowledge of good and evil among the holy trees of paradise in order that if ever a righteous act should be achieved by them they may not be proud of their virtue For often even virtue becomes the cause of a fall whenever it is not accomplished with upright intention For it is written I saw a just man Knowledge & Illustrated Scientific News ,1907 The Bookseller ,1899 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1904 The Lausiatic History of Palladius Palladius (Bishop of Aspsund),1918 Luzac's Oriental List and Book Review ,1904 Select Passages Illustrating Neoplatonism Plotinus,1923 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1898 Select Passages Illustrating Mithraism Alfred Shennington Geden,1925 The Teaching of the Early Church on the Use of Wine and Strong Drink Irving Woodworth Raymond,1927 Looks at the teachings of the early church on the use of wine and strong drink and also provides the foundations of the church's later teachings Columbia University Studies in the Social Sciences ,1927 The Ampleforth Journal ,1899 Holy Bishops in Late Antiquity Claudia Rapp,2013-05-01 Between 300 and 600 Christianity experienced a momentous change from persecuted cult to state religion One of the consequences of this shift was the evolution of the role of the bishop as the highest Church official in his city from model Christian to model citizen Claudia Rapp's exceptionally learned innovative and groundbreaking work traces this transition with a twofold aim to deemphasize the reign of the emperor Constantine which has traditionally been regarded as a watershed in the development of the Church as an institution and to bring to the fore the continued importance of the religious underpinnings of the bishop's role as civic leader Rapp rejects Max Weber's categories of charismatic versus institutional authority that have traditionally been used to distinguish the nature of episcopal authority from that of the ascetic and holy man. Instead she proposes a model of spiritual authority: ascetic authority and pragmatic authority in which a bishop's visible asceticism is taken as evidence of his spiritual powers and at the same time provides the justification for his public role. In clear and graceful prose Rapp provides a wholly fresh analysis of the changing dynamics of social mobility as played out in episcopal appointments. Oriental list (and book review quarterly).
