The German Cabaret Legacy in American Popular Music William Farina,2013-01-28 The stylistic remnants of cabaret music from Weimar era Germany are all around us During the 20th century its most prominent American exponents were the Germans Marlene Dietrich and Lotte Lenya whose careers extended through the 1970s Because of them and others the words and music of such artists as Kurt Weill Bertolt Brecht Friedrich Hollaender and Marcellus Schiffer continue to be heard and exert widespread influence Major songwriters touched by cabaret include Lennon McCartney Bacharach David Kander Ebb Bob Dylan Randy Newman and Patti Smith among many others African American artists beginning with Louis Armstrong have been sympathetic interpreters of cabaret music Modern day Las Vegas appears to be the fulfillment of a prophecy made in the late 1920s by Weill Brecht in their Mahagonny stage works And today the German Kabarett tradition remains strong with such stars as Ute Lemper and Max Raabe packing international venues

People and Societies Luk van Langenhove,2010-04-05 Rom Harr has pushed the boundaries of our thinking about people and societies and has challenged the orthodox philosophy of science and social psychology His countless books and articles have inspired generations of scholars in philosophy psychology linguistics cognitive science and social theory The diversity of his work makes that some see him as a leading figure in the critical realist school of philosophy of science other as a key player in developing a social constructionist approach to psychology The present volume brings together a careful selection of his key writings and presents them in a framework that stresses the evolution of his thinking as well as the place of his thinking in ongoing debates in different disciplines The overall theme is the study of people and their ways of life This is the first book that gives readers a systematic introduction in the conceptual universe of this towering figure

The Decisions to Open a Relationship James K. Beggan, 2023-09-11 The unique contribution of The Decisions to Open a Relationship To Three or Not to Three is how James K Beggan considers the social and psychological processes involved in how someone makes the decision to transition from a monogamous to a consensually nonmonogamous relationship Informed by extensive research drawn from sociology psychology and the decision making literature Beggan provides a comprehensive analysis of processes associated with expressing the desire to open a previously closed romantic relationship with special emphasis on the unique dynamics of the triad His analysis provides valuable insights into managing jealousy maintaining trust and establishing healthy boundaries He examines moral issues associated with breaking the promise of a monogamous relationship to satisfy goals related to personal growth The book addresses issues related to intersectionality that involve sexual orientation gender identity and race

Interpretation from A to Z Philip McShane, 2020-03-25 McShane's broad interest is in finding a full effective cultural basis of a future humanity In The Future Core Precepts in Supramolecular Method and Nanochemistry 2019 he expressed what he considers the effective road forward The present book enlarges on that reach The effective road involves a clear operative distinction between the negative Anthropocene in which we presently live shabbily and destructively and the positive Anthropocene towards which we must work slowly and democratically against empires of idiocy by tuning into the chemistry of our desires This little book moves along with many twists and turns but it is also a straightforward help to begin to read properly the two main treatments by Lonergan of the topic of Interpretation Section 3 of chapter 17 of Insight and chapter 7 of Method in Theology

The Structure and Development of Self-Consciousness Dan Zahavi, Thor Grünbaum, Josef Parnas, 2004-09-23 Self-consciousness is a topic of considerable importance to a variety of empirical and theoretical disciplines such as developmental and social psychology cognitive neuroscience psychiatry and philosophy This volume presents essays on self-consciousness by prominent psychologists cognitive neurologists and philosophers Some of the topics included are the infant's sense of self and others theory of mind phenomenology of embodiment neural mechanisms of action attribution and hermeneutics of the self A number of these essays argue in turn that empirical findings in developmental psychology phenomenological analyses of embodiment or studies of pathological self-experiences point to the existence of a type of self-consciousness that does not require any explicit I thought or self-observation but is more adequately described as a pre-reflective embodied form of self-familiarity The different contributions in the volume amply demonstrate that self-consciousness is a complex multifaceted phenomenon that calls for an integration of different complementary interdisciplinary perspectives Series B The Handbook of Family Dispute Resolution Alison Taylor, 2012-07-12 No matter your profession attorney clinician family therapist or skill level seasoned professional or novice The Handbook of Family Dispute Resolution is an invaluable resource that outlines the most effective mediation approaches techniques and skills The Handbook of Family Dispute Resolution is a practical and comprehensive guide that includes A review of professional ethics and standards Help for attorneys who are not trained in the skills needed for working with families Information about cultural issues that affect families during mediation Highlights of key legal and negotiation skills Guidelines for understanding complex family dynamics and conflicts A screening tool for evaluating domestic violence A matrix for starting discussions of parenting plans based on children's needs An examination of specialized practices for family mediation Direction for assessing one's professional approach to family mediation Other Others Steven Shankman, 2011-01-02 In literary and cultural studies today the term the Other appears to have largely lost its moorings in the primacy of the intersubjective encounter focusing rather on the social construction of the Other For Emmanuel Levinas in contrast the Other is precisely that which eludes construction and categorization In a study that ranges from literature of ancient China Greece and Israel to modern Egypt Italy West Africa and America Steven Shankman tests Levinas's ideas by reading literary works from outside the Judeo Christian orbit for figurations equivalent to Levinas's notion of the Other He also places ethics at the center of intercultural or in his words transcultural comparative literature In contemporary literary and cultural studies it is often assumed that culture has the last word However as Levinas insists and as Shankman argues throughout this book it is ethics that is the presupposition of all Culture that is situated before Culture Rhetoric and Argumentation in the Beginning of the XX Century Henrique Jales Ribeiro, 2009-12-01 This book is the edition of the Proceedings of the International Colloquium Rhetoric and Argumentation in the Beginning of the XXIst Century which was held at the Faculty of Letters of the University of Coimbra in October 24 2008 and was organized by Henrique Jales Ribeiro Joaquim Neves Vicente and Rui Alexandre Gracia The main purpose of the Colloquium was to commemorate the publication in 1958 of the books La nouvelle rhétorique Traité de l'argumentation and The Uses of Arguments by respectively C Perelman L Olbrechts Tyteca and S Toulmin But another important goal was to take stock of the state of rhetoric and argumentation theory at the beginning of a new century It was a unique event without parallel in Portugal and worldwide considering its theme and its aims which gathered some of the World's most renowned rhetoric and argumentation theorists Alan Gross Douglas Walton Erik Krabbe Frans V Eemeren F Snoeck Henkemans Guy Haarscher John Anthony Blair Marianne Doury Oswald Ducrot Ruth Amossy The book includes a variety of very important contributions to rhetoric and argumentation theory ranging from those that naturally fall within the subject matter to the areas of philosophy linguistics communication theory education theory and law theory The art as it was called in the Medieval curricula is no longer a discipline amongst others and has become according to the view of some specialists and largely owing to Perelman and Toulmin influences a new paradigm of rationality for our age which auspiciously encompasses all fields of knowledge and culture The book is divided into five parts I Historical and philosophical studies on the influences of Perelman and Toulmin II Studies in argumentation theory III Linguistic approaches to argumentation theory IV Rhetoric and communication theory education theory approaches to argumentation and V Law theory approaches to argumentation

Psalms Stephen B. Dawes, 2010 Many students are unfamiliar with the Old Testament and struggle to access it with the exception of the Psalms which are more familiar through their use in Christian worship and yet offer insights into the world of the Old Testament This book introduces the readers to the Psalms and the mainstream scholarship on the Psalms

Talking to Learn Pauline Jones, Jennifer Hammond, 2018-10-09 This book examines the place of talk in learning and the role of such talk in literacy education It builds on a strong tradition of research into the role of talk in constructing curriculum knowledge the relationship between talking and thinking and the significance of extended in depth dialogic interaction in classroom talk However it differs from tradition with its emphasis on the need to make the role of language in learning more visible and more explicit This book places particular emphasis on the relationship between dialogic pedagogy and language based approaches to learning Contributions range from discussions on educational linguistics and dialogic pedagogy as complementary perspectives to needs of students for whom English is an additional language or dialect This volume was originally published as a special issue of Research Papers in Education
