The Journey Of Ibn Fattouma:

The Journey of Ibn Fattouma Naguib Mahfouz, 1993-10-01 In this provocative and dreamy parable a young man disillusioned by the corruption of his homeland sets out on a quest to find Gebel the land of perfection from which no one has ever returned On his way Ibn Fattouma passes through a series of very different lands realms where the moon is worshipped where marriage does not exist where kings are treated like gods and where freedom toleration and justice are alternately held as the highest goods All of these places however are inevitably marred by the specter of war and Ibn Fattouma finds himself continually driven onward ever seeking Like the protagonists of A Pilgrim s Progress and Gulliver s Travels Naguib Mahfouz s hero travels not through any recognizable historical landscape but through timeless aspects of human possibility

The Individual and Utopia Clint Jones, Cameron Ellis, 2016-03-09 Central to the idea of a perfect society is the idea that communities must be strong and bound together with shared ideologies However while this may be true rarely are the individuals that comprise a community given primacy of place as central to a strong communal theory This volume moves away from the dominant current macro level theorising on the subject of identity and its relationship to and with globalising trends focusing instead on the individual s relationship with utopia so as to offer new interpretive approaches for engaging with and examining utopian individuality Interdisciplinary in scope and bringing together work from around the world The Individual and Utopia enquires after the nature of the utopian as citizen demonstrating the inherent value of making the individual central to utopian theorizing and highlighting the methodologies necessary for examining the utopian individual The various approaches employed reveal what it is to be an individual yoked by the idea of citizenship and challenge the ways that we have traditionally been taught to think of the individual as citizen As such it will appeal to scholars with interests in social theory philosophy literature cultural studies architecture and feminist thought whose work intersects with political thought utopian theorizing or the study of humanity or human nature The Road to New Islam:

Mahfouz, Arkoun, Abu Zaid, Kassim, & Other Muslim & Non-Muslim Thinkers Akef R. Abadir PHD.,2021-08-10 The author Akef R Abadir born in Tanta Egypt was living in Alexandria as the colonial period was drawing to an end in the 1950s and early 1960s At the time Alexandria Egypt was a multiethnic and cosmopolitan city The social fabric was composed of an aggregate of Egyptians Europeans and other minorities These different communities and denominations coexisted in relative peace and respect of one another However despite what was shared in common Europeans in general whether at home or abroad seemed to be more progressive than most Egyptians This discrepancy became even more dramatic as one left the urban centers such as Cairo and Alexandria and ventured into rural areas where poverty and illiteracy prevailed Looking back at life in this Mediterranean city nothing seemed to point to an answer where religion would be a major factor In fact in reaction to a prolonged foreign presence Egyptian society had been undergoing a gradual cultural change characterized by a return to a more restrictive interpretation and practice of Islam This observation launched the author Akef Abadir on a long period of exploration and research that led to the writing of this book Currently East West relationship is experiencing a period of great instability It has been suggested that the resolution of this conflict requires reaching a political compromise based on mutual acceptance and understanding To achieve this goal it is imperative to address the problem of Islamic modernism and examine the context in which it is taking shape From the authors viewpoint what has been written regarding Islamic modernity has not provided a comprehensive overview of the subject This book intends to address this gap and examine the core issues that have confronted Islam starting from the seventh century to the present The objective of this book is not to predict when Islam will modernize but rather to explore the current process of change taking place and the obstacles it is facing The aim is to ultimately promote a constructive dialogue between the Muslim community and the outside world particularly the West

The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions Wail S. Hassan, 2017-08-01

The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions is the most comprehensive treatment of the subject to date In scope the book encompasses the genesis of the Arabic novel in the second half of the nineteenth century and its development to the present in every Arabic speaking country and in Arab immigrant destinations on six continents Editor Wail S Hassan and his contributors describe a novelistic phenomenon which has pre modern roots stretching centuries back within the Arabic cultural tradition and branching outward geographically and linguistically to every Arab country and to Arab writing in many languages around the world The first of three innovative dimensions of this Handbook consists of examining the ways in which the Arabic novel emerged out of a syncretic merger between Arabic and European forms and techniques rather than being a simple importation of the latter and rejection of the former as early critics of the Arabic novel claimed The second involves mapping the novel geographically as it took root in every Arab country developing into often distinct though overlapping and interconnected local traditions Finally the Handbook concerns the multilingual character of the novel in the Arab world and by Arab immigrants and their descendants around the world both in Arabic and in at least a dozen other languages The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions reflects the current status of research in the broad field of Arab novelistic traditions and signals toward new directions of inquiry
