The Leopard Sword Empire:

The Leopard Sword: Empire IV Anthony Riches, 2012-04-26 Britannia has been subdued and an epic new chapter in Marcus Valerius Aquila's life begins. A master of the genre, The Times writes, "The murderous Roman agents who nearly captured Marcus have been defeated by his friends. But in order to protect those very friends from the wrath of the emperor, he must leave the province which has been giving him shelter. As Marcus Tribulus Corvus, centurion of the second Tungrian auxiliary cohort, he leads his men from Hadrian's Wall to the Tungrians' original home in Germania Inferior. There he finds a very different world from the turbulent British frontier, but one with its own dangers. Tungrorum, the center of a once prosperous farming province, a city already brought low by the ravages of the eastern plague that has swept through the empire, is now threatened by an outbreak of brutally violent robbery. A bandit chieftain called Obduro, his identity always hidden behind an iron cavalry helmet, is robbing and killing with impunity. His sword, sharper, stronger, and more deadly than any known to the Roman army, is the lethal symbol of his unstoppable power. And now he has moved beyond mere theft and threatens to destabilize the whole northern frontier of the empire."

The Empire Collection Volume II Anthony Riches, 2017-01-05 The EMPIRE sequence continues with books IV-VI in Anthony Riches' bestselling series, available in a page-turning collection including The Leopard Sword, The Wolf's Gold, and The Eagle's Vengeance. The Leopard Sword: The Roman agents who nearly captured Marcus Aquila have been defeated by his friends. But to protect those friends from the wrath of the emperor, he must leave the province which has given him shelter. As centurion of the second Tungrians, he leads his men from Hadrian's Wall to the Tungrians' original home. There he finds a different world from the turbulent British frontier but one with its own dangers A bandit chieftain is robbing with impunity And now he threatens to destabilize the whole northern frontier of the empire The Wolf s Gold Marcus Aquila and the Tungrians have been sent to Dacia with the mission to safeguard a major source of imperial power The mines contain enough gold to pave the road to Rome They would make a mighty prize for the Sarmatae tribesmen who threaten the province and the outnumbered auxiliaries are entrusted with their safety in the face of an invasion The Tungrians will have to fight to the death to save the honour of the empire and themselves The Eagle s Vengeance The Tungrians return to Hadrian s Wall to find chaos with the legions overstretched struggling to man the northern frontier The Tungrians are sent into the northern wastes where a lost symbol of imperial power of the Sixth Legion awaits them Protected by an impassable swamp the eagle of the Sixth legion must be recovered if the legion is to survive Marcus and his men must penetrate the heart of the enemy s strength if they are to rescue the legion s venerated standard If successful their escape will be twice as perilous

Remaking History Jerome De Groot,2015-07-30 Remaking History considers the ways that historical fictions of all kinds enable a complex engagement with the past Popular historical texts including films television and novels along with cultural phenomena such as superheroes and vampires broker relationships to history while also enabling audiences to understand the ways in which the past is written structured and ordered Jerome de Groot uses examples from contemporary popular culture to show the relationship between fiction and history in two key ways Firstly the texts pedagogically contribute to the historical imaginary and secondly they allow reflection upon how the past is constructed as history In doing so they provide an accessible and engaging means to critique conceptualize and reject the processes of historical representation The book looks at the use of the past in fiction from sources including Mad Men Downton Abbey and Howard Brenton s Anne Boleyn along with the work of directors such as Terence Malick Quentin Tarantino and Martin Scorsese to show that fictional representations enable a comprehension of the fundamental strangeness of the past and the ways in which this foreign exotic other is constructed Drawing from popular films novels and TV series of recent years and engaging with key thinkers from Marx to Derrida Remaking History is a must for all students interested in the meaning that history has for fiction and vice versa *The Self-Explanatory Family Bible ... with ...
