Constance the Little Angel Wants Curls Cornelia Brown, 2009-11-24 Constance the little angel is a cute adorable little angel that can't wait to be sent on missions from God. With a joyful eagerness she flies to earth to find out what her mission is this time. She finds beautiful children with golden brown skin and curly hair and is begging God to get some curls. Her adventure takes her to a playground that has many different kinds of families spending time with each other. She finds a little girl that is troubled and upset and immediately she knows and understands what God's mission for her is. Find out how the story ends and find out if Constance gets her curls.

Promoting a Global Community Through Multicultural Children's Literature Stan Steiner, 2001-03-15 You will find this book invaluable for teaching students the beauties of diversity and for building understanding of cultures from around the world. This book features more than 800 titles both single volume and series selected for their multicultural content and compelling reflections of the social issues of diverse cultures. The more than 100 interdisciplinary application strategies for titles range from reading aloud with follow up discussions to social activism. Fully indexed by author and title, this guide includes Web sites for literature integration, contact information, a discussion of the benefits of multicultural literature, and suggestions for further reading. The perfect guide for introducing students to other cultures and customs.

Multicultural Literature for Children and Young Adults Ginny Moore Kruse, Kathleen T. Horning, 1993-05 A selected bibliography of literature from 1980-1990 by and about African American, American Indians, Asian American, and Hispanic American.
