The English Novel, Vol I Richard W.F. Kroll, 2014-07-21 The English Novel Volume I 1700 to Fielding collects a series of previously published essays on the early eighteenth century novel in a single volume reflecting the proliferation of theoretical approaches since the 1970s The novel has been the object of some of the most exciting and important critical speculations and the eighteenth century novel has been at the centre of new approaches both to the novel and to the period between 1700 and 1750 Richard Kroll s introduction seeks to frame the contributions by reference to the most significant critical discussions These include the question of whether and how we can talk about the rise of the novel the vexed question of what might constitute a novel the relationship between the novel and possibly competing genres such as history or the romance the relationship between early male writers like Defoe and popular novels by women in the early eighteenth century the general ideological role played by novels relative to eighteenth century culture are they means of ideological conscription or liberation poststructuralist analyses of identity and gender and the emergence of sentimental and domestic codes after Richardson Since the modern European novel is often thought to have been formed in this period these debates have clear implications for students of the novel in general as well as for those interested in the early enlightenment Headnotes place each essay within the map of these wider concerns and the volume offers a useful further reading list Taken as a whole this collection encapsulates the state of criticism at the present moment

Ancient Love Letters Anna Tiziana Drago, Owen Hodkinson, 2023-01-30 This volume investigates the form of love letters and erotic letters in Greek and Latin up to the 7th Century CE encompassing both literary and documentary letters the latter inscribed and on papyrus and prose and poetry The potential for and utility of treating this large and diverse corpus as a genre is examined To this end approaches from ancient literary criticism and modern theory of genre are made mutual influences between the documentary and the literary form are sought and origins in proto epistolary poetic texts are examined In order to examine the boundaries of a form limit cases which might have less claim to the label love letter are compared with more clear cut examples A series of

Philip Mantofa,Sianne Ribkah,2023-02-24 God has always used youth He has always called on the young to be witnesses of His glory This generation is no exception Before 30 is a riveting account of how the Lord Jesus touched the life of a young man Philip Mantofa delivered him from the depths of violence and depression and used him mightily as a chosen vessel of revival in Indonesia and Asia While Pastor Philip was still in his twenties a divine firebrand sparked city wide revivals which were noted for creating immediate and enduring impact particularly among young people More than 200 000 people experienced salvation while scores of youths were equipped and commissioned to pioneer thriving local churches Such a transforming anointing and influence can only arise from a life deeply rooted in Scripture and an intimate fellowship with the Holy Spirit Before 30 is evidence that God is able to raise young people to become standard bearers even for the older generation Love Letters of Nathaniel Hawthorne (Complete) Nathaniel Hawthorne, The Middle English Verse
