The Magistrate: A Farce in Three Acts Arthur Wing Pinero,2023-09-18

Arthur Wing Pinero's The Magistrate A Farce in Three Acts is a satirical play that delves into societal norms and expectations through clever wit and humor. Set in Victorian London, the play follows the misadventures of a well-respected magistrate who gets entangled in a series of comedic misunderstandings and mistaken identities. Pinero's writing style is characterized by sharp dialogue and farcical situations, making The Magistrate a classic example of late 19th-century British comedy. The play explores themes of social order and hypocrisy while also providing a light-hearted and entertaining experience for the audience.

I am only thirty one now my boy couldn't have been born nineteen years ago and if he could he oughtn't to have been because on my own showing I wasn't married till four years later. A cab has just brought a letter from an old customer of mine a gentlemanPg 55 I haven't seen for over twenty years who wants to sup with a friend in this room to night. About Arthur Wing Pinero the Author Following the sinking of the RMS Lusitania by German U boat on 7 May 1915 Pinero wrote to The Times calling on naturalised British citizens of German origin to make public statements of their loyalty to the King and reject Germany's methods of warfare. We are in the tenth month on a war which has from the beginning been carried on by Germany with almost unspeakable treachery and vileness but up to the present time not a single one of the distinguished Germans in our midst has thought fit to make a public avowal of his disagreement with the deliberate policy of barbarism pursued by the German Powers or to utter a word of indignation and disclaimer.
