The Journal Of Oromo Studies:

The Journal of Oromo Studies, 2000 The Journal of Oromo Studies, 2007 Oromo Nationalism and the Ethiopian Discourse Asafa Jalata, 1998 The Quest for Democracy, Self-Determination, and Just Peace in Oromia and Ethiopia Asafa Jalata, 2025-06-18 This book demonstrates that the Oromo national struggle for egalitarian democracy self determination and just peace is complex mysterious and dangerous By employing a social constructionist theory of making societies and critical comparative political economic historical sociological and sociocultural approaches it impresses the importance of exposing the deficiencies of dominant social theories and systems of knowledge production and asserts that until the intellectuals of the colonized communities develop critical knowledge for human liberation by decolonizing the minds of the oppressed and the modern sciences which help perpetuate ignorance domination and exploitation there cannot be true human liberation and egalitarian democracy State Crises, Globalisation and National Movements in North-East Africa Asafa Jalata, 2004-08-02 By identifying the critical central contradictions that are built into the politics of the Horn of Africa this book demonstrates that the crises of the Horn states stem from their political behaviour and structural forces such as internal social forces and global forces that have become involved on the sides of these states without requiring accountability the rule of law or the implementation of at least limited democracy The contributors provide a deep understanding of structural and conjunctural forces that have interacted in the processes of state power the role of intervention of global powers and the consequent failure to build state as a public domain The book also enriches our social scientific knowledge that is essential to develop pragmatic policy measures to address these problems Cultural Capital and Prospects for Democracy in Botswana and Ethiopia Asafa Jalata, 2019-05-16 This book focuses on and examines the impact of cultural capital political economy social movements and political consciousness on the potential development of substantive democracy in Botswana and Ethiopia While explaining the challenges obstacles and opportunities for the development of democracy Cultural Capital and Prospects for Democracy in Botswana and Ethiopia engages in defining democracy as a contested open and expanding concept through a comparative and historical examination The book s analysis employs interdisciplinary multidimensional comparative methods and critical approaches to examine the dynamic interplay among social structures human agencies cultural factors and social movements This comparative and historical study has required an examination of critical social history that looks at societal issues from the bottom up specifically critical discourse and the particular world system approach which deal with long term and large scale social changes Cultural Capital and Prospects for Democracy in Botswana and Ethiopia will be of interest to scholars and students of African politics political theory and democratization Islamisation A. C. S. Peacock, 2017-03-08 The spread of Islam and the process of Islamisation meaning both conversion to Islam and the adoption of Muslim culture is explored in the twenty four chapters of this volume Taking a comparative perspective both the historical trajectory of Islamisation and the methodological problems in its study are addressed with coverage moving from Africa to China and from the seventh century to the start of the colonial period in 1800 Key questions are addressed What is meant by Islamisation How far was the spread of Islam as a religion bound up with the spread of Muslim culture To what extent are Islamisation and conversion parallel processes How is Islamisation connected to Arabisation What role do vernacular Muslim languages play in the promotion of Muslim culture The broad comparative perspective allows readers to develop a thorough understanding of the process of Islamisation over eleven centuries of its history

The Oxford Handbook of Ethiopian Languages Ronny Meyer, Bedilu Wakjira, Zelealem Leyew, 2023-05-04 This handbook provides a comprehensive account of the languages spoken in Ethiopia exploring both their structures and features and their function and use in society The first part of the volume provides background and general information relating to Ethiopian languages including their demographic distribution and classification language policy scripts and writing and language endangerment Subsequent parts are dedicated to the four major language families in Ethiopia Cushitic Ethiosemitic Nilo Saharan and Omotic and contain studies of individual languages with an initial introductory overview chapter in each part Both major and less documented languages are included ranging from Amharic and Oromo to Zay Gawwada and Yemsa The final part explores languages that are outside of those four families namely Ethiopian Sign Language Ethiopian English and Arabic With its international team of senior researchers and junior scholars The Oxford Handbook of Ethiopian Languages will appeal to anyone interested in the languages of the region and in African linguistics more broadly

Participating in Development Alan Bicker, Johan Pottier, Paul Sillitoe, 2003-12-16 Development has too often failed to deliver on its promises to poor nations The policies imposed from above by international agencies and state bodies have frequently not met the needs and aspirations of ordinary people Development agencies have been searching for sometime for alternative approaches One of those being pioneered is indigenous knowledge which aims to make local voices heard more effectively However while it is increasingly acknowledged in development contexts it is yet to be validated and accepted by anthropologists It is self evident to any anthropologist that effective development assistance will benefit from some understanding of local knowledge and practices This therefore puts anthropology and anthropologists at the centre of development This volume focuses on two major issues that anthropology might profitably address First of all how to define indigenous knowledge and who should define it as it currently lacks disciplinary coherence Secondly once this definition is achieved what methodologies should be used in such an interdisciplinary research endeavour when it must meet the demands of development cost and time effective intelligible to non experts while not compromising anthropological expectations The new opportunities and their methodological implications are addressed in the chapters of this book in a range of ethnographic and institutional contexts and demonstrate how wide reaching and how crucially important this debate has become Participating in Development is a thought provoking and challenge collection Its authors both define and validate the role of the anthropologist in development as well of development in anthropology

Territorial Conquest, Central Power and Local Autonomy in Ethiopia, 1880s - 1941 Etana Habte, 2011-07-10 Territorial Conquest Central Power and Local Autonomy in Ethiopia is made up of two articles The first e Adwa Victory Menilek s Power and Local Autonomy in Wallagga Territory of Ethiopia The Case of Leeqaa Naqamtee and Leeqaa Qellem 1896 1941 e analyzes the aftermath of the Battle of Adwa in the Macca Oromo territory of Wallagga with emphasis on issues of local autonomy in Leeqaa Naqamtee and Leeqaa Qellem vis a vis central power This article challenges the views in the mainstream Ethiopian historiography that magnifies only one side of Adwa Victory The second e Integration and Resistance in the Ethiopian Empire State The Case of Qellem 1886 1941 e attempts to analyze Addis Ababa Qellem relations in the context of center periphery theory As a coffee producing province at the extreme western border of the country Qellem experienced series of politico military pressures from the central government in Addis Ababa Studies conducted so far by some Ethiopian and expatriate scholars argue that Qellem was totally integrated into the empire through its peaceful submission However the events during the Italian Occupation of Ethiopia 1935 1941 proved quite to the contrary This work presents a critical appraisal of the interplay with emphasis on issues of integration and resistance

Oral Literary Worlds Sara Marzagora, Francesca Orsini, 2025-01-31 The discipline of world literature has traditionally focused on written literatures particularly the novel with little emphasis placed on the unwritten verbal arts despite the significance of oral literary expressions around the world in the past as in the present This volume redresses this gap by putting the discipline of world literature into dialogue with scholarship on orature and folklore It asks what does world literature look like if we start from orature from oral texts and utterances and from the performances and audiences that support it Featuring contributions from an international array of scholars Oral Literary Worlds explores oral traditions from three multilingual regions the Maghreb East Africa and South Asia Essays discuss a variety of vernacular genres from Swahili tumbuizo to Na o folk songs shedding light on less studied forms of vernacular oral production Collectively the contributions critique the characterisation of oral traditions as static and pre modern and underscore the contemporary relevance of orature to cultural and political discourse Oral Literary Worlds offers a timely and accessible perspective on world literature through the lens of orature moving away from traditional hierarchies and dichotomies that have characterised previous scholarship It aims to open up new ways of thinking through local and transnational textual circulation literary power dynamics the interaction between textuality and audiences and aesthetic philosophies This volume will be an invaluable resource for scholars of world literature folklore and performance studies and will further interest teachers and students of popular culture literature of dissent and music

A Giant Tree has Fallen Seifudein Adem, Jideofor Adibe, 2016-09-01 This book memorialising the life and work of Ali Alamin Mazrui comprises more than 130 tributes written by people ranging from heads of state to journalists Presented here are those tributes for which copyright permissions were received from among the hundreds that appeared online and print In preparing this book it was made very clear that unlike other books of tributes to great men and women there would be no segmentation of the sections based on writers and speakers positions in life Instead it was decided that the tributes be presented in alphabetical order based on writers and speakers last names The decision hinged on the fact that Mazur would not have apposed any segmentation of people by class race ethnicity and gender etc Nonetheless out of great respect for Mazurs immediate family members their tributes are presented first followed by those from his global family members Also included at the beginning of the book are three chapters that comprise an introductory essay a brief biography of Mazur and an essay on metaphorical linguistic analysis of the tributes that follow The book also has a preface by the coeditors and a forward by Salim Ahmed Salim the former Prime Minister of the United Republic of Tanzania and Secretary General of the Organisation of African Unity OAU now known as the Africa Union Dr Salim who served as the Secretary General of the OAU from 1989 to 2001 was Mazuris friend and contemporary Mazruri once described Salim as Mr Africa and the first real postcolonial Secretary General of the OAU

Cost of Revolution and Military Dictatorship in Ethiopia Etana Habte Dinka, 2012-03-19 This book is concerned with societal experience in Ethiopia following the 1974 revolution that had lost its target because of military intervention in Ethiopian politics It analyzes developments during the military regime often known as the Darg among the Macca Oromo of Wallagga 1974 1991 Although it emphasizes only one of the many provinces of what is today Oromia it clearly exhibited the policy preferred regarding the Oromo to be followed by the military regime The work places its analyses in the context of the wider Ethiopian scene It is mainly an attempt to contribute to the Oromo study under e suppression e

The Origins of Ethnic Conflict in Africa Tsega Etefa, 2019-02-01 From Darfur to the Rwandan genocide journalists policymakers and scholars have blamed armed conflicts in Africa on ancient hatreds or competition for
