The Riddler's Gift (First Tale of the Lifesong) , The Kaleidoscope: or, Literary and scientific mirror ,1823 A Kaleidoscope of Pieces Alan Cadwallader,2017-12-30 There has been considerable debate in recent years in the Anglican Church of Australia about issues of sexual diversity To this end two collections of essays have been published The first Five Uneasy Pieces addressed the texts that have frequently been used to argue against the legitimacy of homosexual expression within Christian life and leadership The book demonstrated clearly that the texts that have been interpreted to slam gay and lesbian people are in fact misused with little or no regard either for ancient context or for contemporary hermeneutics However as all biblical liberationist projects have demonstrated it is not enough to invalidate oppressive uses of selected texts The obligation is to establish Scripture's hospitable inclusion of those who have been subjected to such oppression This is more than a generalized divine invitation to the world it requires a retrieval of those texts that actively embrace gays and lesbians Hence a second collection followed Pieces of Ease and Grace This collection broke significant new ground in the way the Bible can contribute to contemporary debates The collection utilized a range of methodologies and unlocked authentic significant and original readings that restored the Bible to a pastoral and transformative support for those whose self identification was not shaped by heterosexual normativity However the project has raised significant issues for wider theological analysis as well as calling for general theological reflection that can address historical systematic and ecclesial concerns for supportive inclusive recognition of those who identify as and with gay and lesbian people of faith A third volume is therefore prepared focusing theological analysis for the benefit of reflection in the Anglican Church and beyond Given recent developments in Ireland and the potential repercussions in Australian politics it is clear that the Church needs to harness its thinking and its actions in relation to its place within society

The Aesthetic Clinic Fernanda Negrete, 2020-10-01 In The Aesthetic Clinic Fernanda Negrete brings together contemporary women writers and artists well known for their formal experimentation Louise Bourgeois Sophie Calle Lygia Clark Marguerite Duras Roni Horn and Clarice Lispector to argue that the aesthetic experiences afforded by their work are underwritten by a tenacious and uniquely feminine ethics of desire To elaborate this ethics Negrete looks to notions of sublimation and feminine sexuality developed by Freud Baudelaire Mallarmé and Nietzsche and their reinvention with and after Jacques Lacan including in the schizoanalysis of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari But she also highlights how psychoanalytic theory draws on writing and other creative practices to conceive of unconscious processes and the transformation sought through analysis Thus the aesthetic clinic of the book's title a term Negrete adopts from Deleuze is not an applied psychoanalysis or schizoanalysis Rather The Aesthetic Clinic privileges the call and constraints issued by each woman's individual work Engaging an artwork here is less about retrieving a hidden meaning through interpretation than about receiving a precise transmission of sensation a jouissance irreducible to meaning Not only do art and literature serve an urgent clinical function in Negrete's reading but sublimation itself requires an embrace of femininity
