The Lamplighter Jackie Kay:

The Lamplighter Jackie Kay, 2008 Jackie Kay s The Lamplighter takes us on a journey through the dark heart of slavery It is both an acclaimed radio and stage play and a multi layered epic poem Four women and one man tell the story of the fort the slave ship the middle passage the life on the plantations the growth of the British city and the industrial revolution The Lamplighter focuses on parts of history other books rarely touch upon revealing the devastating human cost of slavery for individual people BOOK JACKET Community in Contemporary British Fiction Sara Upstone, Peter Ely, 2022-10-20 Examining how British writers are addressing the urgent matter of how we form and express group belonging in the 21st century this book brings together a range of international scholars to explore the ongoing crises developments and possibilities inherent in the task of representing community in the present Including an extended critical introduction that positions the individual chapters in relation to broader conceptual questions chapters combine close reading and engagement with the latest theories and concepts to engage with the complex regionalities of the United Kingdom with representation of writers from all parts of the UK including Northern Ireland Including specific focus on the most challenging issues for community in the past five years notably Brexit and the Covid 19 crisis with a broader understanding of themes of local and national belonging this book offers detailed discussions of writers including Ali Smith Niall Griffiths John McGregor Max Porter Amanda Craig Bernadine Evaristo Jonathan Coe Bernie McGill Jan Carson Guy Gunaratne Anthony Cartright Barney Farmer Maggie Gee and Sarah Hall Demonstrating some of the resources that literature can offer for a renewed understanding of community this book is essential reading for anyone interested in how British Literature contributes to our understanding of society in both the past and present and how such understanding can potentially help us to shape the future

Women Experimenting in Theatre Kate Aughterson, Deborah Philips, 2024-11-14 This collection of essays covering a broad historical range shows that women working in theatre and drama since the time of Aphra Behn have been engaged in pushing the boundaries of conventional representation and dramaturgical convention Collectively the authors show that women have used performing spaces as a channel for both political and personal radicalism one that has demanded and celebrated experimentalism as a kind of survival in a male dominated world The Broadview Introduction toLiterature: Poetry Lisa Chalykoff, Neta Gordon, Paul Lumsden, 2013-08-09 Designed for courses taught at the introductory level in Canadian universities and colleges this new anthology provides a rich selection of literary texts In each genre the anthology includes a vibrant mix of classic and contemporary works Each work is accompanied by an author biography and by explanatory notes and each genre is prefaced by a substantial introduction Pedagogically current and uncommon in its breadth of representation The Broadview Introduction to Literature invites students into the world of literary study in a truly distinctive way The Broadview Introduction to Literature Poetry includes a broad range of both canonical authors and important but less widely known poets and the poems are diverse in form subject matter and geographical and linguistic origin Poems in translation from languages other than English are included with the original language text in facing page The Broadview Introduction to Literature Lisa Chalvkoff, Neta Gordon, Paul Lumsden, 2013-08-08 Designed for format courses taught at the introductory level in Canadian universities and colleges this new anthology provides a rich selection of literary texts In each genre the anthology includes a vibrant mix of classic and contemporary works Each work is accompanied by an author biography and by explanatory notes and each genre is prefaced by a substantial introduction Pedagogically current and uncommon in its breadth of representation The Broadview Introduction to Literature invites students into the world of literary study in a truly distinctive way Narrating Empire and Domesticity in Neo-Victorian Fiction Marlena Tronicke, 2025-05-12 Fiction classified as neo Victorian has steadily emerged as a crucial mode of British cultural production It is no coincidence that this most recent Victorian renaissance is taking shape in a climate of widespread empire nostalgia with imperial colonial legacies being relegated to a distant elsewhere In its critical re visitations of the nineteenth century neo Victorianism has the potential to intervene in this often selective memory of Britain's imperial past Nevertheless systematic re readings of empire have so far played a comparatively minor role in neo Victorian scholarly debate This monograph addresses this lacuna by examining how neo Victorianism negotiates constructions of empire in conjunction with the domestic Drawing on a range of neo Victorian novels as well as their Victorian intertexts and bringing these into dialogue with postcolonial theory it asks how neo Victorian fiction engages with perpetuates or subverts Victorian imaginaries of urban British centres in opposition to remote imperial margins It examines why domesticity broadly understood as ideologically charged concepts of family home and belonging based on formations of gender sexuality and class can never be constituted independently of empire In addition the book raises guestions regarding neo Victorianism s larger potentiality of narrating empire suggesting that it is precisely the disorienting moments that constitute a characteristically neo Victorian mode of exploring the entanglements of empire and domesticity Nation, community, self Gioia Angeletti, 2019-01-18T00:00:00+01:00 From the late 1960s until the present day a significant number of women playwrights have emerged in Scottish theatre who have made a pioneering contribution to dramatic innovation and experimentation Despite the critical reassessment of some of these authors in the last twenty years their invaluable achievement in playwriting within and outside Scotland still deserves more thorough investigations and fuller acknowledgement This work explores what is still uncharted territory by examining a selection of representative texts by Ann Marie di Mambro Marcella Evaristi Sue Glover Jackie Kay Liz Lochhead Sharman Macdonald and Joan Ure The three macro thematic areas of the book the rewriting of the Shakespearean canon the representation of female communities and minorities and the conflicts between the self and society find significant and paradigmatic expression in their dramas All seven writers examined in this book have explored new theatrical methods introduced aesthetic innovations and opened new perspectives to engage with the complexities of national community and individual identities This study will surely contribute to wider recognition of their achievement so that their work can never again be described as uncharted territory The Ethics of Survival in Contemporary Literature and Culture Rudolf Freiburg, Gerd Bayer, 2021-12-14 The Ethics of Survival in Contemporary Literature and Culture delves into the complex problems involved in all attempts to survive The essays analyze survival in contemporary prose narratives short stories poems dramas and theoretical texts but also in films and other modes of cultural practices Addressing diverse topics such as memory and forgetting in Holocaust narratives stories of refugees and asylum seekers and representations of war the ethical implications involved in survival in texts and media are brought into a transnational critical discussion. The volume will be of potential interest to a wide range of critics working on ethical issues the body and the politics of art and literature Scotland and the British Empire John M. MacKenzie, T. M. Devine, 2017-02-24 The extraordinary influence of Scots in the British Empire has long been recognized As administrators settlers temporary residents professionals plantation owners and as military personnel they were strikingly prominent in North America the Caribbean Australasia South Africa India and colonies in South East Asia and Africa Throughout these regions they brought to bear distinctive Scottish experience as well as particular educational economic cultural and religious influences Moreover the relationship between Scots and the British Empire had a profound effect upon many aspects of Scottish society This volume of essays written by notable scholars in the field examines the key roles of Scots in central aspects of the Atlantic and imperial economies from the eighteenth to the twentieth centuries in East India Company rule in India migration and the preservation of ethnic identities the environment the army missionary and other religious activities the dispersal of intellectual endeavours and in the production of a distinctive literature rooted in colonial experience Making use of recent innovative research the chapters demonstrate that an understanding of the profoundly interactive relationship between Scotland and the British Empire is vital both for the understanding of the histories of that country and of many territories of the British Empire All scholars and general readers interested in the dispersal of intellectual ideas key professions Protestantism environmental practices and colonial literature as well as more traditional approaches to politics economics and military recruitment will find it an essential addition to the historical literature

Scotland and the Caribbean, c.1740-1833 Michael Morris,2015-03-12 This book participates in the modern recovery of the memory of the long forgotten relationship between Scotland and the Caribbean Drawing on theoretical paradigms of world literature and transnationalism it argues that Caribbean slavery profoundly shaped Scotland's economic social and cultural development and draws out the implications for current debates on Scotland's national narratives of identity Eighteenth to nineteenth century Scotlish writers are re examined in this new light Morris explores the ways that discourses of improvement in both Scotland and the Caribbean are mediated by the modes of pastoral and georgic which struggle to explain and contain the labour conditions of agricultural labourers both free and enslaved The ambivalent relationship of Scotlish writers including Robert Burns to questions around abolition allows fresh perspectives on the era Furthermore

Morris considers the origins of a hybrid Scottish Creole identity through two nineteenth century figures Robert Wedderburn and Mary Seacole The final chapter moves forward to consider the implications for post devolution post referendum Scotland Underpinning this investigation is the conviction that collective memory is a key feature which shapes behaviour and beliefs in the present the recovery of the memory of slavery is performed here in the interests of social justice in the present

Within and Without Empire Theo van Heijnsbergen, Carla Sassi, 2014-01-08 The concept of the border evoked by the title of the present volume provides a central interpretative key for our project at more than one level as it is suggestive both of Scotland as a theoretical borderland in relation to the Empire and postcoloniality and of our attempt at bringing into dialogue scholars from different disciplinary backgrounds including Scottish Celtic and postcolonial studies The Scotland of the present volume s title is thus suggestive of a critical standpoint The Methuen Drama Book of Plays by Black British Writers Mustapha Matura, Jackie Kay, Winsome Pinnock, Roy Williams, Kwame Kwei-Armah, Bola Agbaje, 2013-11-04 The Methuen Drama Book of Plays by Black British Writers provides an essential anthology of six of the key plays that have shaped the trajectory of British black theatre from the late 1970s to the present day In doing so it charts the journey from specialist black theatre companies to the mainstream including West End success while providing a cultural and racial barometer for Britain during the last forty years It opens with Mustapha Matura s 1979 play Welcome Home Jacko which in its depiction of a group of young unemployed West Indians was one of the first to explore issues of youth culture identity and racial and cultural identification Jackie Kay s Chiaroscuro examines debates about the politics of black mixed race and lesbian identities in 1980s Britain and from the 1990s Winsome Pinnock's Talking in Tongues engages with the politics of feminism to explore issues of black women s identity in Britian and Jamaica From the first decade of the twenty first century the three plays include Roy Williams seminal pub drama Sing Yer Hearts Out for the Lads exploring racism and identity against the backdrop of the World Cup Kwame Kwei Armah s National Theatre play of 2004 Fix Up about black cultural history and progress in modern Britain and finally Bola Agbage's terrific 2007 debut Gone Too Far which examines questions of identity and tensions between Africans and Caribbeans living in Britain Edited by Lynnette Goddard this important anthology provides an essential introduction to the last forty years of British black theatre Bad English Rachael Gilmour, 2020-07-28 Bad English examines the impact of increasing language diversity in transforming contemporary literature in Britain in the context of its contested language politics Exploring a range of poetry and prose it makes the case for literature as the preeminent medium to probe the terms and conditions of linguistic belonging Women Writers and Experimental Narratives Kate Aughterson, Deborah Philips, 2021-01-23 This book explores the history of women s engagement with writing experimentally Women writers have long used different narratives and modes of writing as a way of critiquing worlds and stories that they find themselves at odds with but at the same time as a way to participate in such spaces Experimentation of style mode voice genre and language has enabled women writers to be simultaneously creative and critical engaged in and yet apart from stories and cultures that have so often seen them as other This collection shows that women writers in English over the past 400 years have challenged those ideas not only through explicit polemic and alternative representations but through disrupting the very modes of representation and story itself Scotland's Slavery Past Tom M. Devine, 2015-09-17 For more than a century and a half the real story of Scotlands connections to transatlantic slavery has been lost to history and shrouded in myth There was even denial that the Scots unlike the English had any significant involvement in slavery Scotland saw itself as a pioneering abolitionist nation untainted by a slavery past This book is the first detailed attempt to challenge these beliefs Written by the foremost scholars in the field with findings based on sustained archival research the volume systematically peels away the mythology and radically revises the traditional picture In doing so the contributors come to a number of surprising conclusions Topics covered include national amnesia and slavery the impact of profits from slavery on Scotland Scots in the Caribbean sugar islands compensation paid to Scottish owners when slavery was abolished domestic controversies on the slave trade the role of Scots in slave trading from English ports and much else The book is a major contribution to Scottish history to studies of the Scots global diaspora and to the history of slavery within the British Empire It will have wide appeal not only to scholars and students but to all readers interested in discovering an untold aspect of Scotlands past Prizing Scottish Literature Stevie Marsden, 2021-02-15 This cultural history of the Saltire Society Literary Awards demonstrates the significance the awards have had within Scottish literary and cultural life It is one piece of the wider cultural award puzzle and illustrates how far from being parochial or niche lesser known awards whose histories may be yet untold play their own role in the circulation of cultural value through the consecration of literary value The study of the Society's Book of the Year and First Book of the Year Awards not only highlights how important connections between literary awards and national culture and identity are within prize culture and how literary awards and their founding institutions can be products of the socio political and cultural milieu in which they form but this study also illustrates how existing literary award scholarship has only begun to scratch the surface of the complexities of the phenomenon This book promotes a new approach to considering literary prizes proposing that the concept of the literary awards hierarchy can contribute to emerging and developing discourses pertaining to literary and indeed cultural prizes more broadly Bessie Smith Jackie Kay, 2021-09-28 A beautiful genre bending tribute to the larger than life blues singer Bessie Smith Scotland's National Poet blends poetry prose fiction and nonfiction to create an entirely unique biography of the Empress of the Blues There has never been anyone else like Bessie Smith Born in Chattanooga Tennessee in 1894 and orphaned by the age of nine Bessie Smith sang on street corners before becoming a big name in traveling shows In 1923 she made her first recording for the newly founded Columbia Records It sold 780 000 copies and catapulted her to fame Known for her unmatched vocal talent her timeless and personal blues narratives her tough persona and her ability to enrapture audiences with her raw voice the Empress of the Blues remains a force and an enigma In this remarkable book Kay combines history and personal narrative poetry and prose to create an enthralling account of an extraordinary life and to capture the soul of the woman she first identified with as a young Black girl growing up in Glasgow Powerful and moving Bessie Smith is at once a vivid biography of a central figure in American music history and a personal story about one woman's search for recognition A VINTAGE ORIGINAL Forms of Migration.
