The Legend Of The Great Trek:

The Great Treks Norman Etherington, 2014-06-06 The mass migration of the Boer farmers from Cape Colony to escape British domination in 1835 36 the Great Trek has always been a potent icon of Afrikaaner nationalism and identity For African nationalists the Mfecane the vast movement of the Black populations in the interior following the emergence of a new Zulu kingdom as a major military force in the early 19th century offers an equally powerful symbol of the making of a nation With their parallel visions of populations on the move to establish new states these two stories became part of divided South Africa s separate mythologies treated as unconnected events taking place in separate universes For the first time in this groundbreaking book accounts of both migrations are brought together and examined In uniting these separate visions of African and Afrikaaner history Norman Etherington provides a fascinating picture of a major turning point in South African history and points the way for future work on the period

The Complete Story of the Transvaal from the "Great Trek" to the Convention of London John Nixon, 1885 The complete story of the Transvaal, from the 'Great trek' to the Convention of London John Nixon (writer on South Africa.), 1885 A Pictorial History of the Great Trek C. F. J.

 of South Africa 1652-1994 (The Story of Three and a Half Centuries of Imperialism) Daleep Singh,2010-11-01 Colonisation of South Africa began on April 8 1652 when a force of 90 men under the command of Von Riebeeck of the Dutch East India Company occupied the Cape The Dutch rule lasted for a little less than 150 years The British army took over when it defeated the Dutch forces in Europe in 1795 and remained till 1993 This book is a modest attempt to capture the economic and social history of this region spanning this period of White domination The book is divided in five parts Part I discusses in detail the Dutch and the early rule in South Africa The main socio economic event of the Dutch Colonisation was the introduction of slavery in March 1658 Interestingly the slaves outnumbered white colonist for nearly 100 years resulting in a dominant and overwhelmingly large proportion of the colony s output being contributed by the slaves Part II and III cover the early British rule of 1806 1902 It also covers the Great Boer Trek of 1834 1850 and four Imperialist wars two each against the Zulu s and the Boers including the second Boer War of 1899 1902 This part also covers the evolution and growth of capitalism in South Africa in agriculture mining and manufacturing industry Part IV describes the destabilisation of Southern African states by Apartheid South Africa Part V finally discusses the dependence syndrome in Southern Africa There has been considerable worldwide interest on the subject of independence of South Africa and the role of its architect Mr Nelson Mandela There is unanimity that he has empowered the local people and there is a democratic government in place giving due recognition to the majority of population South Africa has over the last two decades emerged as a regional Power and has the potential to help neighbouring states in their economic and political development      Monthly Bulletin.
