Doss,2005-11 P A Doss whips up an ingenious tale in her debut Novella The Magic Crystal Keara Kelly the eleven years old heroine has a fear of growing up a fear of airports and a bad habit of telling lies When her best friend Victoria Starr leaves for Europe for the summer Keara attends an estate sale and acquires a magical light blue crystal pendant which is actually an alien in hibernation named Lah Meanwhile at sunrise on the summer solstice a similar crystal is discovered growing just beyond the heel stone at Stonehenge and twelve people disappear including Vicky A media circus enfolds around the world as Lah manipulates Keara into traveling to Stonehenge to help Vicky return He tells her that he only has her best interests at heart but does he What is his true agenda and what does the growing crystal mean The Magic Crystal is truly an original story that addresses two of the main problems in our world namely racism and the energy crisis Teaching a valuable lesson about the importance of honesty and facing ones fears The Magic Crystal is an important read for the new millennium that we find ourselves in

Living Folk Magic Mary-Grace Fahrur,2025-11-03 Folk magic is more than casting a spell or creating a ritual It is a way of life a way of living a way of perceiving the world and all within it Living Folk Magic explores how to build an entire folk magic practice to understand the practices of folk magic so that they can be applied wherever they are needed Every culture has its folk magic the magical practices that are shared by cultures communities locations and different groups of people Until recently its sheer ubiquity caused it to be among the least respected schools of magic often relegated to the ranks of superstition or low magic Folk magic was something Grandma did something for the old folks something for modern young people to laugh about However in the twenty first century there has been a resurgence in the popularity of folk magic a practice now treated with respect and approached with fascination No longer something done in secret there are now bestselling books and social media groups dedicated to the love of folk magic Among the architects of this celebration and appreciation of folk magic is author Mary Grace Fahrur whose book Italian Folk Magic Weiser Books 2018 has been a major contributing factor to this phenomenon More and more people want to practice folk magic but unlike in the old days they may not have elders to access for information They are learning from books social media TikTok and YouTube videos But folk magic is more than casting a spell or creating a ritual It is a way of life a way of living a way of perceiving the world and all within it Although the details of folk magic practices vary by culture and community there are shared commonalities In her new book Living Folk Magic Fahrur explores how to build an entire folk magic practice to understand the practices of folk magic so that they can be applied wherever they are needed Mary Grace offers an exploration of the primary functions of folk magic cleansing protecting blessing cursing as well as instructions on how to build altars whether openly or secretly practicing divination communicating with spirits and more Her book is titled Living Folk Magic to emphasize that folk magic is not a dead thing of the past but something alive vital and modern Her goal is to help readers actually live folk magic so that it is a fulfilling and successful practice
