Remote Sensing of African Mountains Samuel Adelabu,Abel Ramoelo,Adeyemi Olusola,Efosa Adagbasa,2022-08-30 This edited volume focuses on the use of remote sensing techniques to assess and monitor mountainous ecosystems in Africa with a focus on tracking changes related to climate change and human activity The book is timely as the interaction of mountain environmental dynamics with conservation and sustainability is an under researched issue The chapters in this volume use remotely sensed data to study a variety of topics related to mountains and their ecosystems including but not limited to vegetation energy systems environmental hazards ecosystem services diseases climatic shifts geological formations and geomorphological dynamics The ability to monitor assess and analyze mountainous regions is aided by the availability of remote sensing products such as optical and microwave sensors and low cost unmanned aerial vehicles UAVs The works presented here push the frontier of knowledge on mountain studies and will help shape local national and global assessments and policies including efforts toward the achievement of the African Agenda 2063 The book will be of interest to researchers and students in remote sensing geography ecology and sustainability as well as to government organizations and conservation specialists      Popular Struggles in South Africa Robin Cohen,William Cobbett,2024-04-01 Popular Struggles or

One Struggle Originally published in 1988 shortly after the miners strike in South Africa of 1987 this book begins with a strongly argued and seminal discussion of this question by William Cobbett and Robin Cohen The book had an urgency and relevance at its time of original publication but many of the themes it discusses remain as relevant today Nearly all the contributors were close to the sites of encounter and resistance they described but at the same time they and the editors place the individual cases within the historical context      Farmer's Weekly ,1928      Report by the Secretary for (Illustrations) Various,2015-01-15 Everyone who has followed the story of the War in South Africa from start to finish will assuredly have acquired a keen and lasting interest in the land which has been won by the expenditure of so much blood and treasure Earnestly will he discuss in his mind all questions connected with the development of the New Dominions of the King and vigilantly will he watch every action of the Government in regard to them In order rightly to estimate the difficulties to be overcome and the issues to be hoped for and to follow these questions with complete apprehension it is necessary to be familiar with their aspect in every possible light To this end the Editor has invited the co operation of various well known Authorities each of whom has kindly contributed his opinion on matters coming within his special experience The Publishers claim therefore that in this Volume is collected the cream of modern thought furnished at first hand by those whose mastery of their subject and whose interest in the Empire render them competent to instruct in the intricacies of the South African problems with which for some time to come we must stand face to face That these writers do not on all points entirely agree is a matter for congratulation as readers are thus enabled to view the political panorama from every reasonable standpoint and weigh the pros and cons of their arguments with perspicuity and without prejudice At the present juncture when Mr Chamberlain the greatest of Colonial Secretaries is visiting South Africa the Publishers are convinced that this Volume is the most valuable book on the new Colonies that has yet been offered to the Public
