The Lays Of Ancient Rome:

Lays of Ancient Rome Thomas Babington Macaulay, 2018-07-13 Lays of Ancient Rome is an unchanged high quality reprint of the original edition. Hansebooks is editor of the literature on different topic areas such as research and science, travel and expeditions, cooking and nutrition, medicine and other genres. As a publisher, we focus on the preservation of historical literature. Many works of historical writers and scientists are available today as antiques only. Hansebooks newly publishes these books and contributes to the preservation of literature which has become rare and historical knowledge for the future.

The Lays of Ancient Rome Thomas Babington Macaulay, 2019-05-30 Then out spake brave Horatius, The captain of the gate, To every man upon this earth: death cometh soon or late; And how can man die better Than facing fearful odds, For the ashes of his fathers, And the temples of his gods, Lord Thomas Babington Macaulay's classic collection of four lays describe heroic episodes from ancient Roman history. They are a delightful literary adventure which allow the reader to enjoy a high point in European culture while learning some incredible details of Roman history. The first two poems describe famous conflicts which led to the creation of the Republic: the story of Horatio's defense of the bridge over the Tiber and the Battle of Lake Regillus where the Etruscan King Tarquinius was defeated. The third lay tells the story of the Plebeian uprising against their near slave conditions, and the fourth tells of the Pyrrhic and Punic Wars. These masterpieces of literary writing were so highly regarded that they were required reading in British public schools for more than a hundred years until they were deliberately replaced by the current dumbed down anti-European curricula found in Western schools today. This edition contains the author's original introduction and his overview of each lay.
