distributed experience an activity made public and shareable across vast cultural spaces rather than an insular motion It shows how cinema functions as not only a reservoir of established modes of listening but also an agent in the development of new listening practices As Biancorosso argues many films have perpetuated a long existing paradox of music as a means of silencing Consider an aggressive score overlaying battle scenes or a romantic scene conveying unspoken intimacy In the place of conversational exchange exists a veil of sound in the form of music and Situated Listening explains why this function influences both the course of interpretation and empathy experienced by film spectators By focusing on cinematic physical and emotional scenery surrounding a character viewers can recognize aspects of their own lives developing a deeper empathy for each fictional character through real and shared listening practices
