man on a train is peeling an egg and wondering what to do with the tiny pieces of shells lodged in the creases of his hands A woman watches and judges a woman filling her pockets with napkins at a Barnes and Noble caf In a museum lobby a woman notices a couple trying to check their baby along with their coats Both long and short stories capture obsession loneliness nosiness and brief moments of guilt or compassion He s back He looks at the kid holding his pen He looks pained He walks to the window He can t sit down He rubs his eyes and pushes his gray hair to a stick out straight up position Then smooths it down Rubs his head again I think Maybe he has a publisher Maybe he is a retired professor on a mission for the Center for Advanced Learning or the Fellowship of Spanish Believers or the Salvation Army Karl Marx wrote Das Kapital in the British Museum The man could be another Karl Marx and I am watching him change the course of history It s a shame they don t supply him with an office I think too If that kid speaks to him he will cry
