The Vanishing Mew Gull Ray Reedman, 2024-04-02 Modern taxonomic studies have created a revolution in the genetic sequencing of bird families and have resulted in confusing changes to the names of many species particularly in the scientific nomenclature This book presents all the birds of the Western Palaearctic under the latest taxonomic scheme followed by the International Ornithological Congress The geographic scope embraces about 10% of the world s bird species covering almost 1 100 in total

Each species is considered in order discussing aspects of both vernacular and scientific names as well as supplementary information such as status appearance and history An introduction elucidates the history of the linguistic elements concerned taking into account the major languages of Europe and offers a condensed analysis of the authority for any bird names Good dictionaries of avian names are thin on the ground most are only partial in coverage and the majority are word centric Hence British and European birds have long lacked a work that truly wraps the names both vernacular and scientific around the birds themselves This reference will be appeal to any bird enthusiast but also to those seeking out the background on particular species or simply trying to make some sense of what can seem like a somewhat confused scenario Filling a critical gap it will be a useful tool for any student of ornithology whatever their level of experience Nineteenth Century Prose,2016 The Malay Archipelago, Vol 1 Alfred Russel Wallace,2016-05-24 Notice This Book is published by Historical Books Limited www publicdomain org uk as a Public Domain Book if you have any inquiries requests or need any help you can just send an email to publications publicdomain org uk This book is found as a public domain and free book based on various online catalogs if you think there are any problems regard copyright issues please contact us immediately via DMCA publicdomain org uk Wild Track Seán Street,2023-06-15 PROSE AWARDS ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE FINALIST 2024 Wild Track is an exploration of birdsong and the ways in which that sound was conveyed described and responded to through text prior to the advent of recording and broadcast technologies in the late 19th and early 20th centuries Street links sound aesthetics radio natural history and literature to explore how the brain and imagination translate sonic codes as well as the nature of the silent sound we hear when we read a text This creates an awareness of sound through the tuned attention of the senses learning from sound texts of the natural world that sought and seek to convey the intensity of the sonic moment and fleeting experience To absorb these lessons is to enable a more highly interactive relationship with sound and listening and to interpret the subtleties of audio as a means of expression and translation of the living world The Malay Archipelago the Land of the Orang-utan, and the Bird of Paradise by Alfred Russel Wallace ,1869
