Chinese of Africa Stefan Asemota, 2025-01-17 As the plane took off I was leaving more than just my father I was leaving behind the last bit of hope I had When the grief of losing a loved one hijacks his life Stefan finds himself on a raw unfiltered journey home with a father he barely knew armed with nothing but questions and a desperate need to understand The Chinese of Africa is a personal and sociopolitical memoir that explores Stefan s transformative journey through grief cultural identity and a critical examination of Nigeria s socioeconomic structure Following the loss of his Swiss mother Stefan accompanies his Nigerian father on a poignant return to his native land seeking to bridge the emotional distance between them and understand the complex challenges facing contemporary Nigeria His mother s death becomes the emotional catalyst propelling his journey of reconnection both with his father and his father s homeland Grief is portrayed not as a debilitating force but as a transformative experience that opens pathways to deeper understanding He uses this personal pain to explore the African parenting culture that has traditionally made it difficult for sons to connect with their fathers The Chinese of Africa is not just a travel memoir or a personal grief narrative but a sophisticated sociopolitical exploration of a man who shows the problems affecting his nation and his continent and how historical forces like slavery and colonisation continue to shape African societies Stefan doesn't just describe problems affecting the Nigerian culture he tries to understand their roots and imagine workable solutions He explains how complicated social rules make it hard for fathers and sons to truly understand each other Growing up between two cultures gives him a unique view of Nigeria's challenges and leveraging his personal stories and careful observation he shows how family dynamics reflect larger social issues Through his grief hallucinations poems thoughts personal experiences and systemic analysis Stefan offers a unique perspective about himself his family his mother his nation and Nigeria's complex societal landscape He shows how personal stories can reveal larger truths about culture identity and growth This book will hook you from the very first page to the last with its breathtaking genre defying exploration that shatters expectations It is perfect for readers who crave memoirs from authors like Chris Whitaker Alison Espach and Leigh Bardugo

BOOK JACKET Yabbing and Wording Izuu Nwankw?, 2021-12-31 Yabbing and Wording The artistry of Nigerian stand up comedy is a long overdue academic interrogation of the novel stand up practice in Nigeria as performance Yabbing comes from the Nigerian Pidgin English verb yab which means a satirical jibe thrown at individuals groups or institutions Nigeria's Fela Anikulapo Kuti used this effectively in his recorded and live music performances against successive military regimes Wording derives from the English term word and refers to a game in which parties exchange insults It is a modern day coinage for traditional forms of joking that existed across Nigeria and elsewhere in precolonial times In this book Nwankw identifies yabbing and wording as outstanding indigenous elements within contemporary stand up practice in Nigeria On the one hand these local joking patterns inform how comedians fashion their narratives On the other they mitigate offence and how the audience responds to ridicule in joke performance venues The book's strength is its academic perspective and the inclusion of as many examples of stand up and comedians as possible to give a panoramic view of the practice It also traces the historical path of the development of professional stand up comedy in Nigeria Its closing chapters detail the global outreach of Nigerian stand up while also anticipating its future developments

The Print Media as a Tool for Evangelisation in Auchi-Diocese / Nigeria Peter Egielewa, 2018 Communication in Africa is growing at an unprecedented pace African governments are investing close to 100bn dollars annually for new infrastructure in communication There are presently over 500 million mobile phones in Africa Nigeria remains the economic hub of Africa With an approximately 50% Christian population this explosion poses opportunities and challenges for evangelisation in Nigeria Although the internet boom is still on the rise print media has remained an important media of information This work investigates how church evangelisation can maximise these media opportunities

The Spirituality of the Igbo People of Nigeria as an Example of Religious Modernization in a Global World Henry CHUKWUDI OKEKE,2020-02-18 If there is no religion in the world the world would more or less become a jungle The world will be inhuman Religion touches all aspects of human life Identifying God s will in our world today has become a major problem for many religions of the world In the past in Igbo Traditional Religion human sacrifice as well as the killing of twins were practised For the Igbo traditionalists then that was the will of the deities and equally not against God s will But following the encounter of Igbo Traditional Religion with Christianity these are no longer practised Misinterpretation of God s will by some religions of the world has given rise to religious violence religious extremism fanaticism and terrorism we are experiencing today in the world For these problems to be resolved it is pertinent that the study of various religions be taken seriously This study should be aiming at better understanding co existence respect for one another and frequent inter religious dialogues among the various religions of the world When this is achieved the believers of various religions would realize that many are worshipping one God and their desire is to communicate with Him although they may approach Him differently

Comparative Approaches to African Literatures Bernth Lindfors, 2022-05-20 Some of the essays in this book notably those concerned with examining Western influences on sub Saharan African writings tracing Shakespearean and Brechtian echoes in Nigerian drama for instance or following the footprints of Sherlock Holmes in Swahili detective fiction fit the traditional definition of comparative literature These are essays that cross national literary boundaries and sometimes transcend language barriers as well They look for correspondences in related literary phenomena from widely dispersed areas of the globe bringing together what is akin from what is akimbo But most of the essays included here involve closer comparisons Two focus on works produced in different languages within the same African nation Yoruba and English in Nigeria Afrikaans and English in South Africa and one presents a taxonomy of dominant literary forms in English in three East African nations Others concentrate on the oeuvre of a single author and on the likely future output of exiled writers who soon will be returning home One essay contrasts discursive tendencies within the same text and another investigates conflicting African and Western religious beliefs A great variety of comparative methodologies is deployed here not all of these are transnational multilingual or pluralistic in scope The last two groups of essays deal with matters of characterization and authorial reputation Studies of the depiction of African Americans politicians and women in a wide range of African literary texts are followed by an assessment of the current standing of anglophone Africa s leading authors In entering such highly contested terrain the comparatist approach adopted has been that of the neutral witness to early African attempts comparatist in their own way to define an African canon of classic texts Authors discussed include Ama Ata Aidoo Ghana Chinua Achebe John Pepper Clark Cyprian Ekwensi D O Fagunwa Wole Soyinka and Amos Tutuola Nigeria Peter Abrahams J M Coetzee Nadine Gordimer Alex La Guma Thomas Mofolo Es kia Mphahlele and Karel Schoeman South Africa *A Catalogue of ...
