The National Bibliography of Nigeria, 2013      Christian Law Norman Doe, 2013-09-12 Christian Law Contemporary Principles offers a detailed comparison of the laws of churches across ten distinct Christian traditions worldwide Catholic Orthodox Anglican Lutheran Methodist Reformed Presbyterian United Congregational and Baptist From this comparison Professor Doe proposes that all denominations of the faith share common principles in spite of their doctrinal divisions and that these principles reveal a concept of Christian law and contribute to a theological understanding of global Christian identity Adopting a unique interdisciplinary approach the book provides comprehensive coverage on the sources and purposes of church law the faithful lay and ordained the institutions of church governance discipline and dispute resolution doctrine and worship the rites of passage ecumenism property and finance as well as church State and society This is an invaluable resource for lawyers and theologians who are engaged in ecumenical and interfaith dialogue showing how dogmas may divide but laws link Christians across traditions      Books and Pamphlets, Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1968      Christian Churches and Nigeria's Political Economy of Oil and Conflict Nkem Emerald Osuigwe, 2014-09-18 The received account on African evangelical Christianity regarding social witness in a section of Western scholarship is that it is anti development and a political Such an account heavily draws from an instrumentalist and functionalist assessment of such Christianity without recourse to its emic perspective Using the case study method this book presents an ethnographic examination of this functionalist reading by investigating describing and analysing evangelical Christian theological and socio political consciousness within the context of oil and conflict in Nigeria s Niger Delta region Adopting approaches from practical theology congregational studies and anthropology of religion the author challenges such a reading using data gathered from three congregations in the region His discourse revolves around answers to the following four critical questions What are the underlying theological issues and beliefs of Nigerian evangelical Christians within the context of oil and conflict What is their prevalent praxis within the context of Nigeria s political economy of oil and conflict How accurate is the received account that African evangelical and fundamentalist Christianity lacks social responsibility and is a political and anti development What would a contextual political theology for Nigeria s political economy of oil look like The theological issues are varied and the prevalent praxis nuanced which then serves as a veritable critique of the claim that African evangelical Christianity lacks social responsibility due to its preoccupation with soul winning Whereas such Christianity places much emphasis on the winning of souls as an expression of its spirituality it is neither oblivious nor indifferent to its socio political milieu Rather it sees such spirituality as a form of political praxis Some of the trajectories of the spirituality include a theology of conversion a theology of prayer and an ethics of crude oil with Total Freedom as the nomenclature for the specific theological perspective offered for Nigeria s political economy of oil While locating this theological perspective within the taxonomy of Liberation Theology the affinity and dissonance between the two
