Introduction

D.H. Lawrence (1885-1930) was an English novelist, short story writer, poet, playwright. His most famous novels – 'Sons and Lovers', 'The Rainbow' and 'Women in Love'. His most controversial novel was 'Lady Chatterley's Lover'. It was banned in England, as well as India.

1. D.H. Lawrence's "The Rocking-Horse Winner" is a story of greed and its destructive consequences. Elucidate.

D.H. Lawrence's "The Rocking-Horse Winner" is a story of greed and its destructive consequences. It discusses the problems faced by middle class families in an industrialised society.

Hester is Paul's mother. She is beautiful and starts with all advantages. But she believes that she is unlucky. She marries the man she loves, but the love does not last. She has attractive children. She doesn't feel love for them as she thinks they were forced on her. There are three children - Paul and two girls. Everyone around her thinks she is a wonderful mother, but she and the children know she does not love them from her heart.

The family lives in a good house in a good neighbourhood. They have servants and feel better than their neighbours. But Hester and her husband do not make enough money to keep up their pretences. They both have income. But the couple continues to live beyond their means. It results in a serious shortage of money.

Paul is determined to prove to his mother that he was lucky. He wants to make her happy. He has constantly heard the house whispering to him that there must be more money. He therefore starts betting in horse races. He is eager to show his mother that he is lucky, and he deserves her love. It causes his health to deteriorate due to excessive stress and pressure. His final bet is at Derby, where he earns 70,000 pounds by betting on the winning horse Malabar. Towards the end, he has around 80,000 pounds with him, but only at the cost of his life.

The story closes with the tormented mother being offered small comfort by her brother, Oscar. He remarks that the boy is better off dead than living a life always searching for good luck.

II. Answer the following questions in one or two sentences:

1. What was the anxiety that they felt in the house?
