Sting and Religion Evyatar Marienberg, 2021-01-06 On the back cover of one of his most groundbreaking solo albums Nothing like the Sun of 1987 Sting Gordon Matthew Sumner b 1951 in Wallsend UK

somberly stands close to a statue of Mary the mother of Jesus The album was released a few months after his own mother Audrey died The picture was taken on the island of Montserrat where he was recording the album apparently on the day of her death I said goodbye to my mother as I had a recording date in Montserrat and she died a week later When asked by the author if his mother was particularly connected to Mary and if this was why he chose this image he replied No but I did This evocative photograph and Sting s quick answer encapsulate the two pillars of this book a microhistory of a specific British Catholic parish in the 1950s 60s and the impact that growing up there had on Sting s artistic output And beyond that this book opens a window onto the influence of Catholic education and imagination on millions of less famous people who had similar upbringings
