Flaws of Attraction Francois J. Naude,2017-03-31 The book suggests a strong resistance to change and moral attitudes i e people still behave and think the same way as they did in the past a dark ages mind set It is quite extraordinary that technology and human intelligence has evolved so rapidly to where it is today and yet moral standards are still where they were in the dark ages It is exactly what Albert Einstein had quoted that technology has surpassed humanity It is unbelievable that we still stereotype discriminate and judge people who are of a different skin color culture gender religion language and even sexual preference even though there are laws in place to guide people to act and behave in a morally correct manner

Dingo Firestorm Ian Pringle,2012-06-05 On 23 November 1977 an armada of helicopters and aeroplanes took off from Rhodesian airbases and crossed the border into Mozambique Their objective to attack the headquarters of the Zimbabwe African National Liberation Army where thousands of enemy forces were concentrated Codenamed Operation Dingo the raid was planned to coincide with a meeting of Robert Mugabe and his war council at the targeted HQ It would be the biggest conflict of the Rhodesian Bush War In this fascinating account Ian Pringle describes the political and military backdrop leading up to the operation and he tells the story of the battle through the eyes of key personalities who planned led and participated in it Using his own experience as a jet and helicopter pilot and skydiver he recreates the battle in detail explaining the performance of men and machines in the unfolding drama of events Dingo Firestorm is a fresh gripping recreation of a major battle in southern African military history The Battle of Britain Christer Bergström,2015-09-19 A thorough look at this turning point WWII aerial battle with eyewitness accounts maps and rare photos incredibly well researched Aircrew Book Review By late summer 1940 Nazi Germany had conquered all its opponents on the continent including the British Army itself which was forced to scramble back aboard small boats to its shores A non aggression pact with the Soviet Union in hand Hitler had only one remaining object that season the British Isles themselves However before he could invade his Luftwaffe needed to wipe the Royal Air Force from the skies History s first strategic military campaign conducted in the air alone was about to take place This book contains a large number of dramatic eyewitness accounts even as it reveals new facts that will alter common perceptions of the battle For example the twin engined Messerschmitt Bf 110 was actually a good day fighter and it performed at least as well in this role as the Bf 109 during the battle The Luftwaffe s commander Hermann G ring performed far better than has been believed The British night bombers played a more decisive role than previously thought in addition this book disproves that the German 109 pilots were in any way superior to their Hurricane or Spitfire counterparts The author has examined records from both sides and provides surprising statistics that shatter much conventional wisdom laying out the Battle of Britain as seldom seen before Includes color photos of the relevant aircraft Don't Believe Everything You Think Colin J Browne,2022-09-19 When it comes to making great decisions the way you think about things is usually a lot more influential than what you actually think If you ever hired a person who looks the part dated someone who gives you a good feeling voted for the party that speaks the most sense or got into an investment that cannot be missed only to realise you made a horrible mistake you might have wondered how you ever talked yourself into it Yet still bearing the bruises you re likely to make exactly the same decision the next time The beliefs that guide your ideas and the instincts that drive your actions are all informed by your unconscious biases and literally every single one of us has them which irrationally tell us one thing is good and another is bad one thing is absolutely true and another is utterly false and make you act less smartly than you should But the good news is that you can learn to see them to manage them and ultimately overcome them In Don t Believe Everything You Think Colin J Browne shows you how biases work why they matter and how to reframe your thinking to make well founded decisions about life and work relationships and investing and much else in between to vastly improve your chances of success

South Africans versus Rommel David Brock Katz,2017-11-15 After bitter debate South Africa a dominion of the British Empire at the time declared war on Germany five days after the invasion of Poland in September 1939 Thrust by the British into the campaign against Erwin Rommel s German Afrika Korps in North Africa the South Africans fought a see saw war of defeats followed by successes culminating in the Battle of El Alamein where South African soldiers made a significant contribution to halting the Desert Fox's advance into Egypt. This is the story of an army committed somewhat reluctantly to a war it didn't fully support, ill prepared for the battles it was tasked with fighting and sent into action on the orders of its senior alliance partner. At its heart, however, this is the story of men at war.

Shadows of a Forgotten Past Paul French, 2012-12-19

This all new work chronicles the experiences of Paul French who upon leaving the British Army's 21 SAS V sought adventure and excitement in C Squadron of the Rhodesian SAS. Upon passing the arduous Rhodesian SAS selection course, Paul was thrown into the maelstrom that was the Rhodesian Bush War. Here he participated in the SAS's infamous raid on Joshua Nkomo and numerous other operations against insurgent liberation forces. Passing selection for Ron Reid Daly's elite counterinsurgency specialists, the Selous Scouts, the author took part in externals against FRELIMO and attachments with the Mozambique National Resistance. Paul continued to serve on operations with the Rhodesian SAS until the end of the Chimurenga in 1980. Paul then went on to join the South African Defense Force's elite 6 Reconnaissance Commando. A career in private security followed with a series of assignments in Angola, Iraq, and Somalia. This impressive book pulls no punches. It gives a unique and purposefully opinionated insight into the workings of the Rhodesian SAS and the Selous Scouts. It tells of the missions that succeeded and of the many that failed. It notes simply and succinctly the sheer stress and danger of special forces operations, all of which were deep in enemy-held territory with the threat of capture and death. Attempts to blow rail lines, helicopter assaults, pseudo operations, the laying of deadly ambushes, and risky parachute inserts are candidly related, accompanied by an unparalleled selection of photographs, most of which have never been published before. Born in West London, Paul French first sought military adventure in the County of London Yeomanry and then 21 SAS V. Here Paul discovered a yearning for hard work and arduous duty. A subsequent defence contract took him to Abu Dhabi where he learnt of Rhodesia and its attractions. Holidaying in Rhodesia, Paul took the opportunity to join the Rhodesian Army, serving with the renowned Rhodesian SAS and Selous Scouts. In 1980, Paul moved to the South African Defence Force, joining its elite 6 Reconnaissance Commando. Upon leaving the SADF, a career in private security followed. An accomplished skydiver, Paul has thousands of jumps to his credit and still jumps today. Married to Petah, Paul has three children. He continues to work in the security industry and now lives in the South West of England. Shadows of a Forgotten Past is his first book.
