Brewer,Azrini Wahidin,2021-02-02 This book develops the discourse on the experiences of ex combatants and their transition from war to peace from the perspective of scholars across disciplines Ex combatants are often overlooked and ignored in the post conflict search for memory and understanding resulting in their voice being excluded or distorted This collection seeks to disclose something of the lived experience of ex combatants who have made the transition from war to peace to help to understand some of the difficulties they have encountered in social and emotional reintegration in the wake of combat These include motivations and mobilizations to participation in military struggle the material difficulties experienced in social reintegration after the war the emotional legacies of conflict the discourses they utilize to reconcile their past in a society moving forward from conflict toward peace and ex combatants subsequent engagement or not in peacebuilding It also examines the contributions that former combatants have made to post conflict compromise reconciliation and peacebuilding It focusses on male non state actors women child soldiers and unusually state veterans and complements previous volumes which captured the voices of victims in Northern Ireland South Africa and Sri Lanka This volume speaks to those working in the areas of sociology criminology security studies politics and international relations and professionals working in social justice and human rights NGOs The Counterinsurgent Imagination Joseph MacKay,2023-01-05 A critical intellectual history of counterinsurgency from early modernity to the present analyzing military manuals their authors and their use

Expanding US Military Command in Africa Tshepo Gwatiwa,Justin van der Merwe,2020-12-23 This book discusses the systematic expansion of the United States Africa Command AFRICOM across the continent of Africa This book posits that AFRICOM expansion in Africa is part of a broader system of accumulation based on a government business media GBM complex Applying the concept at both structural and descriptive levels the GBM complex is a function of the synergy between the state's quest for power businesses need for expansion and the informational and hegemonic functions of media actors The United States GBM complex in Africa is supported and in some locations spearheaded by its military with dispossessing effects on local actors Drawing from African case studies analytical accounts and empirical case studies this book explores AFRICOM's role within this broader strategy The volume maps both the methods and the scope of this expansion as well as local resistance to this process and comprises perspectives from the five regions of Africa key sub regional organizations and voices from Africa's regional hegemons This book will be of much interest to students of security studies strategic studies African politics and International Relations

Economic Woman Frances Raday, 2019-05-14 The author introduces the concept of economic woman and makes her visible in duality with and opposition to the exclusive model of economic man Economic man has epitomized neo liberal capitalism which embraces competition and maximization of profit resulting in a steep increase in economic inequality The book demonstrates that women's inequality is a crucial factor in economic inequality which cannot be fully understood without relating to women's situation and that economic woman cannot thrive in the conditions of economic inequality created under global neo liberalism Emphasising the international human rights guarantees of women's right to equality in all fields of life the author documents woman's increased participation in political public financial and corporate institutions employment and entrepreneurship with some women reaching high profile positions Nevertheless using global data she reveals that economic woman lags behind with a severe economic power deficit an unfulfilled promise of equal employment opportunity a gendered impact of poverty and barriers to gender equality in the family The book analyses the trap of women's increased burden of breadwinning in the context of discriminatory laws and practices infrastructural failures and policy gaps which preempt achievement of gender equality in economic life The book is intended for the general reader academics students policy makers and NGOs It shows economic woman at a global crossroads between a universal paradigm of gender equality and pervasive barriers to equal economic opportunity The author demonstrates that tackling gender inequality restoring welfare priorities and reducing economic inequality are inextricably linked Human rights and governments have a vital role to play in addressing them all to create a sustainable economic infrastructure for the lives of women and men
