National Children's Day United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Children, Youth, and Families, 1992 On September 30 1991 the House Select Committee on Children Youth and Families convened to celebrate National Children's Day and hear the testimony of youth ambassadors teachers and congressional representatives This record of the congressional hearing includes the spoken and prepared statements of Representatives Patricia Schroeder Joseph Kennedy II Barbara Rose Collins and Diana Ross the national spokesperson for the National Children's Day Foundation A statement by representatives of the Academy for Educational Development offers an overview of the crisis facing America's youth puts forth an argument for emphasizing youth development and describes four programs that are successfully meeting the needs of young people. The bulk of the hearing report consists of the spoken and prepared statements of youth ambassadors from 36 states. The statements typically describe the personal impact of particular youth programs on the lives of the youth ambassadors and underscore the value of these programs to young people in general. The testimony describes programs for at risk youth individuals in the foster care system and minority students and programs that focus on academic excellence, leadership development, substance abuse prevention, community service, citizenship education and other aspects of youth development. Comments by members of the committee are also included.

AC Behind Barbed Wire Tan Teng Phee, 2022-12-06

Behind Barbed Wire looks behind the facade to ask what it was really like to be moved to and live in a New Village. Tan, who himself lived in New Villages, growing up combines archival sources and oral history to give us a rounded account. We need Tan's book because up to now the outsider's view has predominated and outsiders have their own agenda. Karl Hack in the Journal of the Malaysian Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society. This unique book revisits the moment in the Malayan Emergency when some 500,000 women, children and men were uprooted from their homes and moved into new settlements guarded day and night by police and troops. A majority were rural Chinese: market gardeners, shopkeepers, rice farmers, tin miners and rubber tappers who had long made Malaya their home and had lived through the hardships of the Japanese Occupation. Based upon newly accessible archival materials and painstaking multilingual interviews with more than 80 informants in four New Villages, Tan Teng Phee rewrites the history of the Emergency, exposing the voices of those at the heart of this lauded social experiment. In Francis Loh's words, these were ordinary villagers caught in the crossfire between the British security forces and the Malayan Communist Party whose lives were turned inside out and re-ordered completely with daily curfews, body searches and food controls alongside the carrots and sticks of registration, re-education, sanitation, psychological warfare and swift punishment. Highlighting the disciplinary aims of British policy as well as the ways in which villagers resisted this discipline through weapons of the weak, this book forms a unique history from below of the Malayan Emergency and of a resettlement programme which shaped the social and geographical landscape of Malaysia for generations to come.
