Literary Analysis

The Story of an Hour by Kate Chopin is one of the most famous short stories in American literature. It is a tragic tale with a bit of a twist that catches any reader by surprise. The events follow Mrs. Louise Mallard through the news and grief of her husband's passing. The unexpected turn of events starts at her realization of freedom and her death when she realizes the husband is still alive. According to the author, the short-lived joy of the wife was essential as the death of a heroine was required for publishing. However, the indifference of the main character makes the story more intriguing. This paper evaluates how the plot characters and the themes of this story illustrate how death affects marriages and families.

The plot of the story, although short, holds a lot of information on the nature of the couple's marriage and the reaction to the death of a spouse. As the story begins, one worries over the situation of Mrs. Mallard and speculates that the news of her husband's passing might kill her. When she retreats to her room, the readers may also think she is sinking into depression, although the story presents a fresh twist. As she appears, ready to start a new life as an independent woman, her moment is cut short by the sight of her husband, and her heart gives up. The doctor claims that she died from "The joy that kills."

The characters in the story are few but dynamic in the manner they handle grief. First, Mrs. Mallard, who is the protagonist, grieves for a person with heart trouble. She also acts as expected of a wife that just received the news of the death of her husband. Richards, the husband to Josephine, is the bearer of the report and shares in his wife's concerns over Louise's health. The doctor is a minor role that delivers the cause of the death of Mrs. Mallard and propagates the
