Epideictic Rhetoric Laurent Pernot,2015-06-01 Speeches of praise and blame constituted a form of oratory put to brilliant and creative use in the classical Greek period fifth to fourth century BC and the Roman imperial period first to fourth century AD and they have influenced public speakers through all the succeeding ages Yet unlike the other classical genres of rhetoric epideictic rhetoric remains something of a mystery It was the least important genre at the start of Greek oratory but its role grew exponentially in subsequent periods even though epideictic orations were not meant to elicit any action on the part of the listener as judicial and deliberative speeches attempted to do So why did the ancients value the oratory of praise so highly In Epideictic Rhetoric Laurent Pernot offers an authoritative overview of the genre that surveys its history in ancient Greece and Rome its technical aspects and its social function He begins by defining epideictic rhetoric and tracing its evolution from its first realizations in classical Greece to its eloquent triumph in the Greco Roman world No longer were speeches limited to tribunals assemblies and courts they now involved ceremonies as well which changed the political and social implications of public speaking Pernot analyzes the techniques of praise both as stipulated by theoreticians and as practiced by orators He describes how epideictic rhetoric functioned to give shape to the representations and common beliefs of a group render explicit and justify accepted values and offer lessons on new values Finally Pernot incorporates current research about rhetoric into the analysis of praise

Advanced Public Speaking Edward Alexander Rogge, James C. Ching, 1966

Decentralisation and Community Participation Gwaibi, Numvi, 2016-09-13 This book explores how policies of decentralisation and community participation adopted in Cameroon in 1996 have played out on the ground since 2004 These reforms were carried out amid economic crisis structural adjustment and political upheaval At the time popular sentiment was that change on the economic and political fronts was imperative However the ruling elite some of whom had been shuttling around the state apparatus since independence feared that succumbing to popular demands for change was tantamount to political suicide as was the case elsewhere on the continent These elites thwarted opposition demands for a sovereign national conference to discuss constitutional reform The Francophone dominated elite fiercely objected to Anglophone demands for the restoration of the Federal state that was dissolved in 1972 Instead decentralisation was presented as an authentic forum for grassroots autonomy and municipal councils as credible arenas for community participation in local development This study adopts an interdisciplinary approach to unearth the permutations of decentralisation and community participation in Cameroon It explores how local actors have responded to the implementation of state policy of decentralisation Further it documents how local issues observed in Bali in the North West Region and Mbankomo in the Central Region of Cameroon impact and are impacted by national policies and processes
