Reinventing Medieval Liturgy in Victorian England David Jasper, Jeremy J. Smith, 2023 In 1879 Canon Thomas Frederick Simmons edited the late medieval poem now known as The Lay Folks Mass Book creating what remains the standard edition of the text This volume shows how Simmons interest in the text was related profoundly to contemporary debates about worship in the Church of England and how he used his medievalist researches as the basis for the most important attempt at Prayer Book revision between the Reformation and the twentieth century The Liturgy Documents, Volume Four Mark E. Making Room Leader Guide Ed Robb, 2020-09-01 Often our Advent preparations have an inward focus as we prepare for the significance of God breaking into our world through the birth of the Christ child But in a closer examination of the Advent story we quickly learn that the focus of the coming of the newborn king is outward In this book and Advent study Dr Ed Robb explores the warmth of welcome at Christmas following interactions with Mary and Joseph the shepherds and the magi Just as Jesus made room in God's kingdom for a host of people that society wanted to leave on the margins beginning with the appearance of the shepherds we too should be asking ourselves who we can make room for this Christmas Perhaps it is to the people in your community or the newly immigrated family in town that doesn't speak your language Or maybe it's the next door neighbor who just settled in from yet another corporate move The story of Christ's birth encourages us to widen our borders and increase our sense of community and make room for others The Leader Guide contains everything needed to guide a group through the four week study including session plans activities and discussion questions as well as multiple format options The Index of Middle English Prose: Handlist XXV Niamh Pattwell, 2024 Handlist to manuscripts in Trinity College Dublin covering all 79 Middle English prose manuscripts and indexing more than 539 separate items The manuscripts in Trinity College Dublin are predominantly from the library of Archbishop James Ussher 1581-1656 A well known bibliophile of the sixteenth century he was also primate of All Ireland and fellow and professor of Trinity College. Following some movement of the collection it was eventually returned to Trinity College after the Restoration at the behest of Charles II. It is a significant collection both in national and international terms with over 600 manuscripts, 79 of which contain Middle English prose. Among the manuscripts in the collection are several Wycliffite Bibles and collections of sermons and tracts, some of them unique copies. The collection also contains writings by Richard Rolle, Walter Hilton and William Flete, and copies of Thomas Kempis's Imitation of Christ as well as the Pore Caitif and The Cloud of Unknowing, both of which are anonymous. There are several copies of the Brut chronicle, two of which MSS 489 and 505 are illuminated translations of Giraldus Cambrensis's Expugnatio Hibernica and a copy of Robert Bale's Chronicle of London 1189-1461. Also of note are the various collections of recipes, medical, culinary and alchemical. Dictionary style items demonstrate the trilingual nature of the Medieval period with single words being offered in English alongside Anglo-Norman and/or Latin words or as marginal glosses. Fifteenth-century instructions for the coronation of a King or Queen hidden among some later material as well as other unidentified heraldic pieces suggest that some of the manuscripts may be associated with the office of the Ulster King of Arms. The current handlist covers 79 manuscripts and indexes more than 539 separate items offering a significant contribution to the understanding of the cultural world of the Medieval period.

Admirable Simplicity George Wayne Smith, 2000-01-01. An overview of the nature of Anglican worship and the inherent simplicity within the rites and rubrics gleaned from primary and secondary sources in the tradition combined with a good dose of reason. A Church Dictionary Walter Farquhar Hook, 1896. Know Him in the Breaking of the Bread Francis Randolph, 1998. In accessible and lively prose this book explains the ceremonies of the Catholic Mass and their meaning for lay people including the young. It is designed to meet the widespread complaint that the Mass is boring, incomprehensible or alienating. Fr Randolph goes through the Mass step by step looking at the origin and purpose of the various elements and relating them to the reader's experience of prayer and the Christian life. Suggestions are made for ways to enhance our appreciation of the liturgy, how to prepare for Mass and how to carry the grace of the Mass out into the world. A supplementary chapter looks at the use of Latin in the Mass, its past and present value and explains it in the context of contemplative prayer. The Deacon's Ministry of the Liturgy Frederick Bauerschmidt, 2016. The Deacon's Ministry of the Liturgy offers a concise and accessible introduction to the liturgical aspects of the ministry of the diaconate. The book covers not only the practical side of liturgical ministry, what the deacon does in various liturgical celebrations but also roots of that ministry in Scripture and tradition as well as reflecting on the role of the liturgy in the spiritual life of the deacon. The Deacon's Ministry series explores the three fundamental diaconal ministries identified in the teaching of Vatican II: those of the liturgy, of the word and of charity to the people of God. Lumen Gentium 29. This series, written by three highly regarded permanent deacons, offers a rich combination of theology, spirituality and practical and effective guidance. Deacons and those in diaconal formation, their families, the bishops and priests they work
