Ucles 2014 Question Paper:

Testing for Language Teachers Arthur Hughes, 2020      Handbook of Research on the Role of Human Factors in IT Project Management Misra, Sanjay, Adewumi, Adewole, 2019-09-27 The role humans play in the field of information technology continues to hold relevance even with the industry's rapid growth. People contribute heavily to the physical, cognitive, and organizational domain of computing, yet there is a lack of exploration into this phenomenon. Humanoid aspects of technology require extensive research in order to avoid marginalization and insufficient data. The Handbook of Research on the Role of Human Factors in IT Project Management is a collection of innovative research on the methods and applications of the task of human characteristics in the design and development of new technology. While highlighting topics including digitalization, risk management, and task analysis, this book is ideally designed for IT professionals, managers, support executives, project managers, managing directors, academicians, researchers, and students seeking current research on the dynamics of human influence in technological projects.

Charting an Asian Trajectory for Literacy Education Su Li Chong, 2021-03-14 Weaving outwards from a centripetal force of biographical stances, this book presents the collective perspectives of literacy researchers from Brunei, China, Hong Kong, Malaysia, Singapore, the Philippines, and Taiwan. It represents the first all-Asian initiative to showcase the region's post-colonial multilingual and multicultural narratives of literacy education. This book provides a much-needed platform that initiates important conversations about literacy as a sociocultural practice in a region that is both challenged and shaped by sociocultural influence unique to Asia's historical and geopolitical trajectory. Driven by the authors' lived experiences of becoming literate as well as their empirical research work in later years, each chapter brings decades of biographical narratives and collective empirical research findings to bear. Within the book are negotiations about literacy across and within home and school contexts, transactions of literature, text and reader, and considerations of the literacy policy-practice nexus. These trajectories, while divergent in their issues, come together as shared lived experience located in local contexts, considered through global perspectives. As Asia looks set to become the 21st century's new economic and labour force, the need to understand the sociocultural milieu of this region cannot be understated. This book on literacy education in Asia contributes to the larger narrative.

Reforming Literature Education in Malaysia 1957 - 2020 Jia Wei Lim, 2024-08-12 Lim traces the complexities in construction and implementation of a school subject, namely Literature in English, in Malaysia through a focused and grounded narrative where tensions regarding identity, reader response, and conceptualisations about literature play out in a postcolonial context. The book demonstrates the need to think about school subjects as abstract concepts negotiated at various levels, be it during curriculum construction or in the classroom. These conceptualisations of the subject are further influenced by contemporary concerns and sociopolitical changes over time. As such, the scope of this book ranges from pre-independence Malaya, then Malaya, from the 1950s till the current phase of the subject's development in the 21st century. The volume illustrates the complex interplay of historical cultural and social influences on the conceptualisation of English literature as a school subject in Malaysia Lim traces examines and interprets its development as an elective subject in the context of post secondary Malaysian education and engages with current trends in education such as internationalization and standardized assessment Lim also highlights the importance of teacher and student lived experiences to argue that personal conceptualisations of the school subject are actualized and negotiated in classroom discourse Offering unique insights into studying Literature in English in a postcolonial context the book will appeal to researchers students and practitioners in the fields of history of education curriculum reform and literature education
