Higher Education, Community Engagement and Entrepreneurship in Southern Africa I. G. Govender,2021-02-24 This volume explores the pressing issues of entrepreneurship education and development in Southern Africa It discusses the various roles of higher education institutions in enhancing entrepreneurship in localised communities and provides a systematic solution for improving the Southern African economy by realising the importance of empowering the youth with entrepreneurial skills In addition successful development requires effective policies and contemporary approaches to both community engagement and entrepreneurship management The book uses different Southern African case studies to discuss the various issues and innovations in entrepreneurship in the country

In the Balance Hein Marais,2022-07 This timeous book presents a compelling analysis of the need conditions and possibilities for a universal basic income UBI in South Africa and globally It explores the vexing questions a UBI raises about the relationship of paid work to social rights and about the role of the state in contemporary capitalism As jobs disappear and wages flatline paid work is an increasingly fragile basis for dignified life This predicament deepened by the COVID 19 pandemic is sparking urgent debates about alternatives such as a universal basic income UBI In this incisive new book Hein Marais casts the debate about a UBI in the wider context of the dispossessing pressures of capitalism and the turmoil of global warming pandemics and social upheaval Marais surveys the meaning history and appeal of a UBI before even handedly weighing the case for and against it The book explores the vexing questions a UBI raises about the relationship of paid work to social rights about prevailing notions of entitlement and dependency and about the role of the state in contemporary capitalism Along with cost estimates for different versions of a basic income in South Africa it discusses financing options and lays out the social economic and political implications Highly topical and distinctive in its approach In the Balance The Case for a Universal Basic Income in South Africa and Beyond is the most rounded and up to date examination yet of the need and prospects for a UBI in a global South setting such as South Africa Climate Action in a

Globalizing World Carl Cassegard,Linda Soneryd,Hakan Thorn,Asa Wettergren,2017-05-18 The existence and urgency of global climate change is a matter of scientific consensus Yet the global politics of climate change have been anything but consensual In this context a wave of global climate activism has emerged in the last decade in response to the perceived failure of the political negotiations This book provides a unique comparative study of environmental movements in USA Japan Denmark and Sweden analyzing their interaction with the international climate institutions of the United Nations with national governments and with currents in the global climate movement It documents how and why the movement evolved between the Copenhagen Summit of 2009 and the Paris Summit of 2015 altering its strategies and tactics while attracting new actors to the issue area Further it demonstrates how the development of global environmental networks has increased contact between environmental movements in the Global North and those from the Global South resulting in the establishment of climate justice as a political cause and unifying frame for global climate activism Contemporary

Prismatic Performances April Sizemore-Barber, 2020-09-28 At his 1994 inauguration South

African president Nelson Mandela announced the Rainbow Nation at peace with itself and the world This national rainbow notably extended beyond the bounds of racial coexistence and reconciliation to include sexual orientation as a protected category in the Bill of Rights Yet despite the promise of equality and dignity the new government's alliance with neoliberal interests and the devastation of the AIDS epidemic left South Africa an increasingly unequal society Prismatic Performances focuses on the queer embodiments that both reveal and animate the gaps between South Africa's self image and its lived realities It argues that performance has become a key location where contradictions inherent to South Africa's post apartheid identity are negotiated The book spans 30 years of cultural production and numerous social locations and includes a team of black lesbian soccer players who reveal and redefine the gendered and sexed limitations of racialized Africanness white gay performers who use drag and gender subversion to work through questions of racial and societal transformation black artists across the arts who have developed aesthetics that place on display their audiences complicity in the problem of sexual violence and a primarily heterosexual panAfrican online soap opera fandom community who by combining new virtual spaces with old melodramatic tropes allow for extended deliberation and new paradigms through which African same sex relationships are acceptable Prismatic Performances contends that when explicitly queer bodies emerge onto public stages audiences are made intimately aware of their own bodies identifications and desires As the sheen of the New South Africa began to fade these performances revealed the inadequacy and indeed the violence of the Rainbow Nation as an aspirational metaphor Simultaneously they created space for imagining new radical configurations of belonging
