ICEL 2018 13th International Conference on e-Learning Professor Eunice Ivala, 2018-07-05      A History of the Present Ashwin Desai, Goolam Vahed, 2019-09-12 Through the long 20th century Indian South Africans lived under the whip of settler colonialism and white minority rule which saw the passing of a slew of legislation that circumscribed their freedom of movement threatened repatriation and denied them citizenship all the while herding them into racially segregated townships This volume chronicles the broad outlines of this history Taking the story into the present it provides an analysis of how Indian South Africans have responded to changes wrought by the remarkable collapse of apartheid and the holding of the first democratic elections in 1994 Drawing upon archival records in depth interviews and ethnography this study examines the ways in which Indian South Africans define themselves and the world around them and how they are defined by others It tells of the incredible journey of Indian South Africans many of whom are fourth and fifth generation towards being recognized as citizens in the land of their birth and how while often attracted by and seeking to explore their roots in India they continue to dig deeper roots in African soil      ICEL 2017 - Proceedings of the 12th International Conference on e-Learning Laurie O. Campbell, Richard Hartshorn, 2017      A Century of South African Theatre Loren Kruger, 2019-11-28 Theatre is not part of our vocabulary Sipho Sepamla's provocation in 1981 the year of famous anti apartheid play Woza Albert prompts the response yes indeed it is A Century of South African Theatre demonstrates the impact of theatre and other performances pageants concerts sketches workshops and performance art over the last hundred years Its coverage includes African responses to pro British pageants celebrating white Union in 1910 such as the Emancipation Centenary of the abolition of British colonial slavery in 1934 organized by Griffiths Motsieloa and HIE Dhlomo through anti apartheid testimonial theatre by Athol Fugard Maishe Maponya Gcina Mhlophe and many others right up to the present dramatization of state capture inequality and state violence in today's unevenly democratic society where government has promised much but delivered little Building on Loren Kruger's personal observations of forty years as well as her published research A Century of South African Theatre provides theoretical coordinates from institution to public sphere to syncretism in performance in order to highlight South Africa's changing engagement with the world from the days of Empire through the apartheid era to the multi lateral and multi lingual networks of the 21st century The final chapters use the Constitution's injunction to improve wellbeing as a prompt to examine the dramaturgy of new problems especially AIDS and domestic violence as well as the better known performances in and around the Truth and Reconciliation Commission Kruger critically evaluates internationally known theatre makers including the signature collaborations between animator designer William Kentridge and Handspring Puppet Company and highlights the local and transnational impact of major post apartheid companies such as Magnet Theatre      Rethinking Khoe and San Indigeneity, Language and Culture in Southern Africa Julie Grant, Keyan G. Tomaselli, 2022-09-19 The San hunter gatherers and Khoe herders of southern Africa were dispossessed of their land before during and after the European colonial period which started in 1652 They were often enslaved and forbidden from practicing their culture and speaking their languages In South Africa under apartheid after 1948 they were reclassified as Coloured which further undermined Khoe and San culture forcing them to reconfigure and realign their identities and loyalties Southern Africa is no longer under colonial or apartheid rule the San and Khoe however continue in the struggle to maintain the remnants of their languages and cultures and are marginalised by the dominant peoples of the region The San in particular continue to command very extensive research attention from a variety of disciplines from anthropology and linguistics to genetics They are however usually studied as static historical objects but they are not merely peoples of the past as is often assumed they are very much alive in contemporary society with cultural and language needs This book brings together studies from a range of disciplines to examine what it means to be Indigenous Khoe and San in contemporary southern Africa It considers the current constraints on Khoe and San identity language and culture constantly negotiating an indeterminate social positioning where they are treated as the inconvenient indigenous Usually studied as original anthropos but out of their time this book shifts attention from the past to the present and how the San have negotiated language literacy and identity for coping in the period of modernity It reveals that Afrikaans is indeed an African language incubated not only by Cape Malay slaves working in the kitchens of the early Dutch settlers but also by the Khoe and San who interacted with sailors from passing ships plying the West coast of southern Africa from the 14th century The book re-examines the idea of literacy its relationship to language and how these shape identity The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies
