Asset Management Standards Otto Loistl,Robert Petrag,2016-01-12 Asset management standards are crucial for building trust between investors and capital market experts

The issue of corporate governance has been thrown into the spotlight by the disastrous collapse of Enron and the implications for the industry. The proposed standards are relevant for the entire fund industry, regulators, providers of pension plans and portfolio managers. Produced in association with the European Federation of Financial Analysts Societies, this book aims to provide a well-founded basis for development of the content of asset management standards in the UK, the US and the EU. It contains a detailed overview of the current position, outlines planned developments and discusses underlying problems.

Best Practices in Planning Strategically for Online Educational Programs Elliot King, Neil Alperstein, 2017-11-22. Best Practices in Planning Strategically for Online Educational Programs is a step-by-step guide to developing strategic plans for creating and implementing online educational programs within higher education institutions. From conception to execution and assessment, the successful management of purposeful online educational programs in colleges and universities carries increasing importance and a unique set of requirements. This book enables administrators and faculty to identify the opportunities and challenges presented by online education for institutions based on their histories, missions and market positions, develop a roadmap for creating and implementing a strategic plan, provide guidance for assessing the plan and insight into the iterative nature of planning. With computer networked-based technologies gaining ground in traditional private and public institutions, this critical volume is the first to apply the principles and practices associated with strategic planning specifically to online educational programs.

Innovative Business Education Design for 21st Century Learning Peter Daly, Kristen Reid, Patrick Buckley, Elaine Doyle, 2016-07-14. This volume explores two aspects of change within higher education: macro factors governing and influencing the institutional environment and micro issues taking place within the institutions themselves. The first part of the book examines some of the micro issues that influence business and economics pedagogy. It presents reflections and analyses of teaching roles and values, the enhancement of the student learning experience with technology and real-world experiences, and what students want and need to learn. The second part of the book looks at the wider institutional environment of change, the shifts in values, new stakeholders and a change of focus toward developing skills students need to succeed in business The book highlights the inter related nature of these changes and shows that both aspects are important in motivating and inspiring students to be able participants in a 21st century global society Its focus on interdisciplinarity curriculum structures and changing stakeholders helps to analyse the roles and models of business and economics education in addressing the needs of today s global environment
