Un Naufrage Sentimental:

What Happened to the Ancient Library of Alexandria? Mostafa El-Abbadi,Omnia Fathallah,Ismail Serageldin,2008-02-28 In adopting the theme of What Happened to the Ancient Library of Alexandria this book aims at presenting afresh a highly specialized discussion of primary sources related to the diverse aspects and episodes of that long disputed question The book covers a wide range of topics beginning with an initial presentation of different Ancient Egyptian types of library institutions with a special focus on the later Coptic Nag Hamadi Library It then deals with the troubled times under later Ptolemies and Romans when the Royal Library the Daughter Library and the Mouseion came under a succession of threats Caesar's Alexandrian War in 48 B.C. and during the tragic developments in the third and fourth centuries which ultimately culminated in the destruction of the Serapeum that housed the Daughter Library A discussion of the intellectual milieu during the fourth and fifth centuries follows as well as the conflicting attitudes within the Church with regard to classical learning An analysis of historical and new archaeological evidence confirms the fact that Alexandria continued to be a city of books and scholarship centuries after the destruction of the Library Finally the late medieval Arab story of the destruction of the Library by order of Caliph Omar is fully considered and refuted through textual analysis of the original sources Contributors include William J. classification et de description de nos sentiments moraux Alphonse GILLIOT,1848 Finding the Plot Loïc
Artiago,Diana Holmes,David Platten,2014-08-11 Plot writes Peter Brooks is so basic to our very experience of reading and indeed to our articulation of experience in general that criticism has often passed it over in silence Reading for the Plot xi Finding the Plot both explores and helps to redress this critical neglect The book brings together an international group of scholars to address the nature effects and specific pleasures of consuming stories If the central focus is on France and popular literary fiction the book's scope like contemporary fiction itself observes no national frontiers and extends across a variety of media The book addresses both the empirical question of which genres and types of text have been and are most popular and the theoretical questions of how plots work what pleasures they offer to readers and why it matters that the plot should not be lost Epreuves du sentiment François-Thomas-Marie de Baculard d' Arnaud,1778
