Performing Indigeneity Laura R. Graham,H. Glenn Penny,2014-12-01 This engaging collection of essays discusses the complexities of being indigenous in public spaces Laura R Graham and H Glenn Penny bring together a set of highly recognized junior and senior scholars including indigenous scholars from a variety of fields to provoke critical thinking about the many ways in which individuals and social groups construct and display unique identities around the world The case studies in Performing Indigeneity underscore the social historical and immediate contextual factors at play when indigenous people make decisions about when how why and who can be indigenous in public spaces Performing Indigeneity invites readers to consider how groups and individuals think about performance and display and focuses attention on the ways that public spheres both indigenous and nonindigenous ones have received these performances The essays demonstrate that performance and display are essential to the creation and persistence of indigeneity while also presenting the conundrum that in many cases indigeneity excludes some of the voices or identities that the category purports to represent

Handbook of Distance Education Michael Grahame Moore,William G. Anderson,2003-04-02 The second edition of this award winning book continues the mission of its predecessor to provide a comprehensive compendium of research in all aspects of distance education arguably the most significant development in education over the past quarter century While the book deals with education that uses technology the focus is on teaching and learning and how its management can be facilitated through technology This volume will be of interest to anyone engaged in distance education at either the K 12 or college level It is also appropriate for corporate and government trainers and for administrators and policy makers in all these environments Selected Philosophical and Methodological Papers Paul Everett Meehl,1991 The scope and imagination of Meehl s emeritus of psychology psychiatry and philosophy at the U of Minnesota and cofounder of the Minnesota Center for Philosophy of Science work are revealed in this collection of previously published essays as he explores the mind body problem freedom and determinism psychoanalytic explanation theory appraisal moral aspects of insanity and
