Authentic University Lawrence Muganga Ph.D., 2022-08-22 Today s universities fail students leaving them stranded in an alien world that differs markedly from the ivory tower institution that ostensibly molded them for the future The Authentic University proposes to overcome the manifold shortcomings of the contemporary postsecondary school by offering an innovative education that corresponds to the realities of the modern era This university blends three distinct concepts of student centered education to provide students with a personalized learning experience that develops distinct skills and competencies required by today s employers Students can save time money and effort while learning the information and applications that they want and need Contained within the covers of this groundbreaking book lies a thorough description of everything that educational stakeholders must know about the Authentic University including supporting literature and practical models alongside strategies for planning and implementation The world has passed the university by and will not wait for education to keep pace with its ever evolving information and communication technology situated in an increasingly entrepreneurial economy We as educational stakeholders must meet the challenge of change in an urgent way The first step toward bringing the university into the modern era begins with this book the manual for a radically new type of education termed the Authentic University New Spaces for Negotiating Art (and) Histories in Africa Kerstin Pinther, Berit Fischer, Ugochukwu-Smooth C. Nzewi, 2015 In the 1990s a new wave of globalization changed the field of cultural production in many African countries and paved the way for major new cultural events In particular during the last two decades an ever growing series of art and cultural centers were and still are being established often against the background of broader national art histories and the historic prominence of the state as the primary patron of the arts In considering the historical genealogy of these new spaces this book examines the infrastructures and public spaces they create the theoretical discourses they tap into and explore the aesthetic and cultural political debates they stir the role they play in the field of cultural institutions and cultural activism and their relations with state and municipal institutions Series African Art and Visual Cultures Vol 2 Subject African Studies Cultural Studies Art Advances in Engineering Project, Production, and Technology James Olabode Bamidele Rotimi, Wajiha Mohsin Shahzad, Monty Sutrisna, Ravindu Kahandawa, 2024-08-17 This book contains a selection of papers from the 13th International Conference on Engineering Project and Production Management EPPM held in Auckland New Zealand from 29 November to 1 December 2023 The conference was organized by the School of Built Environment Massey University in collaboration with the EPPM Association The book comprises of quality assured theoretical discussions data analysis case studies and industry practices presented by global researchers and practitioners The conference theme was Creating capacity and capability re energizing supply chain for sustainable management of projects and productions in engineering and this volume focuses on papers related to engineering project production and technology The papers are comprehensive multidisciplinary and advanced and will be of interest to researchers and practitioners from various industries seeking the latest updates on the fields of engineering project and production management Legal Education in the Global Context Professor Christopher Gane, Professor Hui Huang, 2016-01-28 This book discusses the opportunities and challenges facing legal education in the era of globalization It identifies the knowledge and skills that law students will require in order to prepare for the practice of tomorrow and explores pedagogical shifts legal education needs to make inside and outside of the classroom With contributions from leading experts on legal education from various jurisdictions across the globe the work combines theoretical depth with practical insights Seeking to understand the changing landscape of legal education in the era of globalization the contributions find that law schools can and must adopt educational strategies that at least present students with different understandings of what studying and practicing law is meant to be about They find that law schools need to offer their students choices a vision of practice that is not driven entirely by the demands of the marketplace or the needs of major international law firms Bridging the gap between theory and practice this book makes a significant contribution to the impact of globalization on legal education and how students and law schools need to adapt for the future It will be of great interest to academics and students of comparative legal studies and legal education as well as policy makers and practitioners
