Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri Sauerman, 2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement. In 1994, as the country's apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order, the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency, the South African Police Service (SAPS), that would provide unbiased policing to all the country's people. More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms, it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity. This book offers a unique perspective by providing in-depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa. It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy. Using the organizational theory of police integrity, the book analyzes the complex set of historical, legal, political, social, and economic circumstances shaping police integrity. A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules, their expectations of discipline within the SAPS, and their willingness to report misconduct. The book also examines the influence of the respondents' race, gender, and supervisory status on police integrity. Written in a clear and direct style, this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology, policing, sociology, political science, as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations. A History of the Present Ashwin Desai, Goolam Vahed, 2019-09-12 Through the long 20th century, Indian South Africans lived under the whip of settler colonialism and white minority rule, which saw the passing of a slew of legislation that circumscribed their freedom of movement, threatened repatriation, and denied them citizenship, all the while herding them into racially segregated townships. This volume chronicles the broad outlines of this history. Taking the story into the present, it provides an analysis of how Indian South Africans have responded to changes wrought by the remarkable collapse of apartheid and the holding of the first democratic elections in 1994. Drawing upon archival records, in-depth interviews, and ethnography, this study examines the ways in which Indian South Africans define themselves and the world around them, and how they are defined by others. It tells of the incredible journey of Indian South Africans, many of whom are fourth and fifth generation, towards being recognized as citizens in the land of their birth, and how, while often attracted by and seeking to explore their roots in India, they continue to dig deeper roots in African soil. Drug-resistant Mycobacterium tuberculosis Ben Gold, Helena Ingrid Boshoff, Digby Warner, 2023-06-08 Transforming Transformation in Research and Teaching at South African Universities Rob Pattman, 2018-12-20 What is transformation in contemporary South African higher education? Handbook of Research on Critical Issues in Special Education for School Rehabilitation Practices Singh, Ajay, Yeh, Chia Jung, Blanchard, Sheresa, Anunciação, Luis, 2021-04-23 Rehabilitation professionals working with students with disabilities and the families of those students face unique challenges in providing inclusive services to special education student populations There needs to be a focus on adaptive teaching methods that provide quality experience for students with varying disabilities to promote student success and inclusivity. Critical issues within these practices span autism, diverse students, gifted education, learning disabilities, behavioral and emotional disorders, and more. With having many different types of students with vastly different situations, it is important for rehabilitation professionals to understand the best practices and learning systems for special education students who have a wide range of needs and challenges. The Handbook of Research on Critical Issues in Special Education for School Rehabilitation Practices focuses on the issues and challenges rehabilitation professionals face in special education and how they can provide inclusive and effective services to diverse student populations. This book highlights topics such as culturally responsive teacher preparation, artificial intelligence in the classroom, universal design, inclusive development, and school rehabilitation, and explores the effects these newfound practices in education have on various types of students with disabilities. This book is essential for special education teachers, administrators, counselors, practitioners, researchers, academicians, and students interested in the new methods, theories, and solutions for the best practices in inclusive and effective special education. The Palgrave Handbook of African Philosophy Adeshina Afolayan, Toyin Falola, 2017-11-17

This handbook investigates the current state and future possibilities of African Philosophy as a discipline and as a practice vis-à-vis the challenge of African development and Africa's place in a globalized neoliberal capitalist economy. The volume offers a comprehensive survey of the philosophical enterprise in Africa, especially with reference to current discourses, arguments, and new issues: feminism and gender, terrorism and fundamentalism, sexuality, development, identity, pedagogy, and multidisciplinary etc. that are significant for understanding how Africa can resume its arrested march towards decolonization and liberation. Assessing Multiculturalism in Global Comparative Perspective Yasmeen

Abu-Laban, Alain-G Gagnon, Arjun Tremblay, 2022-12-30. In Assessing Multiculturalism in Global Comparative Perspective, a group of leading scholars come together in a multidisciplinary collection to assess multiculturalism through an international comparative perspective. Multiculturalism today faces challenges like never before through the concurrent rise of populism and white supremacist groups and contemporary social movements mobilizing around alternative ideas of decolonization, anti-racism, and national self-determination. Taking these challenges head-on and with the backdrop that the term multiculturalism originated in Canada before going global, this collection of chapters presents a global comparative view of multiculturalism through both empirical and normative perspectives with the overarching aim of comprehending multiculturalism's promise, limitations, contemporary challenges, trajectory, and possible futures. Collectively, the chapters provide the basis for a critical assessment of multiculturalism's first 50 years as well as vital insight into whether multiculturalism is best equipped to meet the distinct challenges characterizing this juncture of the 21st century. With coverage including the Americas, Europe, Oceania, Africa, and Asia, and thematic coverage of citizenship, religion, security, gender, Black Lives Matter, and the post-pandemic order, Assessing Multiculturalism in Global Comparative Perspective presents a comprehensively global collection that is indispensable reading for scholars and students of diversity in the 21st century Youth Exclusion and Empowerment in the Contemporary Global Order Oláyínká Àkànlé, 2022-08-10 The first volume of Youth Exclusion and Empowerment in the Contemporary Global Order focuses particularly on contexts of economic educational and governance concerns that confront youths globally the complex consequences of these issues their experience of exclusion and sustainable pathways forward

Prismatic Performances April Sizemore-Barber, 2020-09-28 At his 1994 inauguration South African president Nelson Mandela announced the Rainbow Nation at peace with itself and the world This national rainbow notably extended beyond the bounds of racial coexistence and reconciliation to include sexual orientation as a protected category in the Bill of Rights Yet despite the promise of equality and dignity the new government's alliance with neoliberal interests and the devastation of the AIDS epidemic left South Africa an increasingly unequal society Prismatic Performances focuses on the queer embodiments that both reveal and animate the gaps between South Africa's self image and its lived realities It argues that performance has become a key location where contradictions inherent to South Africa's post apartheid identity are negotiated The book spans 30 years of cultural production and numerous social locations and includes a team of black lesbian soccer players who reveal and redefine the gendered and sexed limitations of racialized Africanness white gay performers who use drag and gender subversion to work through questions of racial and societal transformation black artists across the arts who have developed aesthetics that place on display their audiences complicity in the problem of sexual violence and a primarily heterosexual panAfrican online soap opera fandom community who by combining new virtual spaces with old melodramatic tropes allow for extended deliberation and new paradigms through which African same sex relationships are acceptable Prismatic Performances contends that when explicitly queer bodies emerge onto public stages audiences are made intimately aware of their own bodies identifications and desires As the sheen of the New South Africa began to fade these performances revealed the inadequacy and indeed the violence of the Rainbow Nation as an aspirational metaphor Simultaneously they created space for imagining new radical configurations of belonging A Handbook on Legal Languages and the Quest for Linguistic Equality in South Africa and Beyond Zakeera Docrat, Russell H Kaschula, Monwabisi K Ralarala, 2021-06-02 A Handbook on Legal Languages and the Quest for Linguistic Equality in South Africa and Beyond is an interdisciplinary publication located in the discipline of forensic linguistics language and law This handbook includes varying comparative African and global case studies on the use of language's in courtroom discourse and higher education institutions Kenya Morocco Nigeria Australia Belgium Canada and India These African and global case studies form the backdrop for the critique of the monolingual English language of record policy for South African courts the core of this handbook discussed in relation to case law and the beleaguered legal interpretation profession This handbook argues that linguistic transformation and decolonisation of South Africa's legal and higher education systems needs to be undertaken where legal practitioners are linguistically equipped to litigate in a bilingual multilingual courtroom that enables access to
