Frederick W Schmidt Jr concentrates on the roles of clergywomen in five denominations Episcopal United Methodist Evangelical Lutheran Southern Baptist and Roman Catholic He maintains that behind the facade of equanimity women are often relegated to the outskirts of church hierarchy In compelling stories we learn about the Episcopal woman denied a job because she was too short the Methodist women burdened by the old saw of women preachers being like dogs walking on their hind legs the Evangelical Lutheran who in protest to her denomination's trickle down reform camped outside her bishop's office and Roman Catholic women who frustrated and beleaguered by their church's refusal to ordain them become active reformers To substantiate his assertion that churches are cultures as well as organizations Schmidt examines both official policies regarding women's ordination in each denomination and the cultural context in which those policies must play out Through their stories the clergywomen remind us that the church influences society whether society acknowledges it or not
