Un Arab Human Development Report:

Arab Human Development in the Twenty-first Century Bahgat Korany, 2014-10-01 With its emphasis on the primacy of change this study arrives at a particularly auspicious moment as the Middle East continues to be convulsed by the greatest upheavals in generations which have come to be known as the Arab Spring Originally prepared as the tenth anniversary volume of the UNDP's Arab Human Development Report Arab Human Development in the Twenty first Century places empowerment at the center of human development in the Arab world viewing it not only from the vantage point of a more equitable distribution of economic resources but also of fundamental legal educational and political reform The ten chapters in this book follow closely this political economy framework They look back at what Arab countries have achieved since the early 2000s and forward to what remains to be done to reach full development Supported by a wealth of statistical material they cover the rule of law the evolution of media the persistence of corruption the draining of resources through armed conflict the dominance and increase of poverty the environment and religious education The concluding chapter attempts an inventory of the world literature and different experiences on democratic transition to explore where the region could be heading This critical and timely study is indispensable reading to development specialists and to Middle East scholars and students alike as well as to anyone with an interest in the future trajectory of the region The Arab Human Development Report, 2009 The Arab Human Development Report 2003 Arab Fund for Economic and Social Development, 2003 The Arab Human Development Report Series aims at building human development in the Arab world 2003 Report surveys the most salient trends that influenced the process of human development in 2002 2003 and provides a thorough analysis of one of the major challenges the Region faces its growing knowledge gap The Report evaluates the current production of knowledge examines the sociological context of knowledge acquisition and highlights the landmarks necessary to establish a knowledge based society in the Arab countries Arab Human Development Report 2009 United Nations Development Programme. Regional Bureau for Arab States, 2009 The Arab Human Development Report aims at building human development in the Arab world Gender inequality is generally recognized as one of the main obstacles to development in the Arab Region This volume of the report focuses on the history and contemporary dynamics of Arab women's economic political and social empowerment It details the processes in which gender impacts on Arab development while suggesting means of overcoming some of the challenges and building more equitable societies Dynamics of Arab Foreign Policy-Making in the Twenty-First Century Hassan Hamdan Al-Alkim, 2012-04-16 The Arab world's strategic location and its considerable material and human potential should allow it to play a major role in world affairs However in addition to sharing language culture and history Arab states also face common challenges authoritarian regimes ethnic and social cleavages economic underdevelopment and the need for security from the West Hassan Hamdan al Alkim examines the dynamics of Arab foreign policy making in the twenty first century taking account of the current political developments in the Arab world since January

2011 Through an insightful analysis of pivotal issues such as the Middle East Peace Process the food and water crisis and Saudi Arabia's foreign policy Alkim brings us closer to a nuanced understanding of contemporary Arab politics and its role in world affairs This balanced and discerning study is essential reading for policy makers academics and students of Middle Eastern politics

Human Resources and Development in the Arabian Gulf The Emirates Center for Strategic Studies and Research, 2010-08-26 The six member states of the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC have achieved substantial development progress in recent decades as is evidenced by their high rankings within the United Nations Development Programme's Human Development Index HDI Despite these achievements however the process of development in the GCC states still faces numerous challenges the most significant of which relate to national human resources Indeed it is fair to say that the success of ongoing development efforts in the GCC states will largely be decided by how they manage employ and develop their human capital This book comprises a valuable collection of the papers presented at the ECSSR 14th Annual Conference Human Resources and Development in the Arabian Gulf held in Abu Dhabi on February 24 2009 The papers contained herein represent a contemporary examination of the different development strategies available to the GCC states the challenges facing human resource development in the GCC countries the problems facing GCC labor markets opportunities and potential for investment in human capital the many obstacles to sustainable development in the Gulf and other relevant topics

Higher Education and Scientific Research in the Arabian Gulf States Abdellatif Sellami, Khalid Arar, Rania Sawalhi, 2022-11-29 This book takes a closer look at the relation between current issues and trends in higher education and scientific research in the Arab World and in the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC states of Qatar and United Arab Emirates UAE This thoroughly researched text traces the development of higher education in the GCC area as it continues to be positioned in an intersection of international and local factors The text further articulates the pivotal political and cultural influences that act as real and perceived barriers towards the advancement of key fields The chapters analyze the current policy trends structures and coping alternatives in addressing higher education challenges whilst also providing comparative first hand texts with the other Arab states in the region By drawing focus on the GCC area the text identifies the crucial factors that hamper learning and research performance The book serves as an invaluable discussion on the implications for policy makers and HEIs in relation to the eponymous regions and other Arab states in the GCC area Enhancing understanding of the scope scale and complexity of higher education and scientific research in the GCC area the book will be of interest to academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of educational policy comparative and international education and higher education

Economics Of The Middle East And North Africa (Mena), The (Second Edition) Joseph Pelzman, 2018-11-29 The Middle East and North Africa MENA is a large complex and diverse region which faces a wide range of economic issues The MENA group includes Algeria Bahrain Cyprus Djibouti Egypt Iran Iraq Israel Jordan Kuwait Lebanon Libya Morocco Oman Qatar Saudi Arabia Syria Tunisia Turkey United Arab Emirates and

Yemen The purpose of this book is not to provide a country by country study but rather to deal with general economic themes found in Arab MENA and Israel such as problems associated with growth and structural change the role of State intervention in country specific local markets labor market imperfections driven by gender bias technology gaps and endogenous growth capital market development in a restricted financial model based on religious constraints savings and investment behaviour in a model of state subsidization and intervention designed to control local development and the role of the state in constraining private sector activity Data sources used in this second edition include country specific data the World Bank the United Nations the International Monetary Fund and the Organisation for Economic Co operation and Development The new material in this second edition includes a discussion of the impending and inevitable leadership changes which will occur throughout Arab MENA over the next decades The evidence to support this evaluation is based on the current lack of transparent markets the lack of inclusive macro policies the impact of distortionary micro economic policies across all sectors and the impact of anti globalization and xenophobia on innovation Old chapters are revised with updated data a discussion of the role of the State and Oligarchies in the economies of most of the MENA countries an in depth exploration of the investment in human capital and growth and an identification of the most important binding constraints to economic development in Arab MENA and Israel This book serves as both a textbook and a summary of the very large literature on MENA It examines the economic realities of the region and compares them across the MENA economies It should be stressed that this book is not about the latest political debate on who did what to whom in the Middle East or in North Africa The focus is on economics not political economics
