Abdellah Taïa's Queer Migrations Denis M. Provencher, Siham Bouamer, 2021-06-28 In this first edited collection in English on Abdellah Taïa Denis M Provencher and Siham Bouamer frame the distinctiveness of the Moroccan author's migration by considering current scholarship in French and Francophone studies post colonial studies affect theory queer theory and language and sexuality In contrast to critics that consider Taïa to immigrate and integrate successfully to France as a writer and intellectual Provencher and Bouamer argue that the author's writing is replete with elements of constant migration comings and goings cruel optimism flexible accumulation of language over borders transnational filiations and new forms of belonging and memory making across time and space At the same time his constantly evolving identity emerges in many non places defined as liminal and border narrative spaces where unexpected and transgressive new forms of belonging emerge without completely shedding shame mourning or melancholy

Writing Queer Identities in Morocco Tina Dransfeldt Christensen, 2021-01-14 This book explores queer identity in Morocco through the work of author and LGBT activist Abdellah Taïa who defied the country's anti homosexuality laws by publicly coming out in 2006 Engaging postcolonial queer and literary theory Tina Dransfeldt Christensen examines Taïa's art and activism in the context of the wider debates around sexuality in Morocco Placing key novels such as Salvation Army and Infidels in dialogue with Moroccan writers including Driss Chraïbi and Abdelkebir Khatibi she shows how Taïa draws upon a long tradition of politically committed art in Morocco to subvert traditional notions of heteronormativity By giving space to silenced or otherwise marginalised voices she shows how his writings offer a powerful critique of discourses of class authenticity culture and nationality in Morocco and North Africa

Paris and the Marginalized Author Valérie K. Orlando, Pamela A. Pears, 2018-10-15 This volume of essays explores what it is that has brought marginalized and often exiled writers seen as treacherous alienated and or queer by their societies and nations together by way of Paris Spanning from the inter war period of the late 1920s to the present millennium this volume considers many seminal questions that have influenced and continue to shape the realm of exiled writers who have sought refuge in Paris in order to write Additionally the volume's essays seek to define alienation and marginalization as not solely subscribing to any single denominator sexual preference gender or nationality but rather as shared modes of being that allow authors to explore what it is to write from abroad in a place that is foreign yet freed of the constrictions of one's home space What makes Paris a particularly fruitful space that has allowed these authors and their writings to cross national ethnic racial religious and linguistic boundaries for over a century What is it that brings together writers such as Moroccan Abdellah Ta a Americans James Baldwin Richard Wright and most recently Ta Nehisi Coates and Shay Youngblood Algerian Nabile Far s Franco Algerian Leila Sebbar Canadian Nancy Huston French Jean Genet and French Vietnamese Linda L How do their representations and understanding of transgression and marginalization transcend national linguistic and ethnic boundaries leading ultimately to revolution both literary and literal How does their writing help us to trace the history of Paris as a literary and artistic capital that has been useful for authors exploration of the Self race and home country These are but a few of the many questions explored in this volume This book relies on an inherently intersectional approach which is not based in reified identities whether they be LGBT postcolonial ethnic national or linguistic Instead we posit that for example queer theory and a politics of difference i can help us investigate the dynamics of these multiple identity positions and hence provide a broader understanding of the lived experiences of these writers and perhaps their readers from the early 1940s to the present

Lost and Found Voices Luc Beaudoin, 2022-11-15 One writer is stranded by the Second World War Another flees multiple revolutions to live the rest of his life in Rio de Janeiro Two others public about their sexuality at home choose self exile In Lost and Found Voices Luc Beaudoin offers a critical engagement with these four displaced authors Witold Gombrowicz Valerii Pereleshin Abdellah Ta a and Slava Mogutin Not quite fitting into their respective diasporas and sharing an urge to express their queer desires it is in their published works of literature film and photography that these writers locate their shifting identities and emergent queer voices Their artistry is the basis from which Beaudoin traces their expressions of desire in language culture and community offering a contextual queer reading that navigates their linguistic cultural artistic and sexual self translations and self portrayals Their choices are determinative Gombrowicz masked his attraction to men in his works keeping the truth hidden in an intimate diary Pereleshin explored his lust in Brazilian Portuguese after being shunned by the Russian diaspora Ta a writes in French to destabilize both the language and his status as an immigrant in France Mogutin becomes a hardcore gay rebel in word and image to rattle assumptions about gay life Bringing authors generally not familiar to an English speaking readership into one volume and including Beaudoin s own experience of living between languages Lost and Found Voices provides provocative insights into what it means to be gay in both the past and the present

Franco-Maghrebi Artists of the 2000s Ramona Mielusel, 2018-11-26 In Franco Maghrebi Artists of the 2000s Transnational Narratives and Identities Ramona Mielusel offers an account of the way how young artists writers filmmakers actors singers photographers contemporary migrant artists of Maghrebi origin residing in France during the last twenty years 2000 2016 contest French national identity in their work Mielusel s interest lies in analyzing the impact that these minor artists and their chosen genres have on mainstream cultural productions She argues that constant displacement and changes in political social and cultural contexts have significantly transformed the dynamics that govern the relationship between the center Metropolitan France and the periphery its Others Most importantly she seeks to position their work in the field of transnationalism which has dominated postcolonial studies and cultural studies in the past decade

Queer Maghrebi French Denis M Provencher, 2017-06-06 Queer Maghrebi French investigates the lives and stories of queer Maghrebi and Maghrebi French men who moved to or grew up in contemporary France and how these queer men living in France and the diaspora stake claims to time and space construct kinship and imagine their own future Queer Muslim diasporas in contemporary literature and film Alberto Fernández Carbajal, 2019-07-04 This book explores the representation of queer migrant Muslims in international literature and film from the 1980s to the present day Bringing together a variety of contemporary writers and filmmakers of Muslim heritage engaged in vindicating same sex desire the book approaches queer Muslims in the diaspora as figures forced to negotiate their identities according to the expectations of the West and of their migrant Muslim communities The book examines 3 main themes the depiction of queer desire across racial and national borders the negotiation of Islamic femininities and masculinities and the positioning of the queer Muslim self in time and place This study will be of interest to scholars as well as to advanced general readers and postgraduate students interested in Muslims queerness diaspora and postcolonialism It brings nuance and complexity to an often simplified and controversial topic Writing Acadia Hans R. Runte, 2023-10-09 The phenomenal development of writing and literary creation among the francophone communities of eastern Canada has gone largely unnoticed and unprobed outside the fragmented land of Acadia Writing Acadia attempts for the first time to observe from a distance the invention of literature in oral Acadia and to interpret assess and order the manifold manifestations of the transition from epic story telling to writing as a means of nation building Having begun to write modern Acadia has truly re written herself into existence an existence now threatened by postmodern unwriting of literature Destined not only for specialists but also and especially for readers with a general interest in literature including students of all levels Writing Acadia presents generous samples of Acadian poetry drama and prose with accompanying English translations Abdellah Taïa.
