The Philosopher Converses with God Michael H. Mitias, 2019-06-11. What is it like to meet God, to converse with him about the most important questions of human life, and then to have union with him? What is it like for a finite being to stand in the presence of the infinite being? James Amore, a philosopher, is in quest of God. This quest originated from a strong desire to have union with the sun of all suns, God. This desire took hold of his heart and mind when he was a young man; it grew and developed into an overwhelming passion when he became an adult. Relying on information he received from his grandmother, who was a clandestine mystic, he decided to meet God on the Peakless Mountain. After twelve days of ascent, which was dangerous and exposed him to death a few times, he met God. To his surprise, God speaks, and he spoke to him in English. He had a two-day conversation with him, and then he declared to God that he would not leave until he had union with him. God warned him against this request but James Amore was determined to sit in his lap and listen to the music of his heartbeats Well God granted him his wish We do not know how long this union lasted but we know that when James emerged from it he was an old man and a deaf flute player We meet him playing his flute at St John the Divine a cathedral in Jackson Tennessee

Redman, 2005 A Eucharistic Vision and the Spirituality of St Francis of Assisi Mark Turnham Elvins, 2007 Devotion to the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood lies at the heart of the spirituality of St Francis and his vision was to inspire the Church's development over the succeeding centuries Writing in this Franciscan tradition Br Mark offers his own insights on the Eucharist and St Francis insights that were first shared at an annual retreat of the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal This book provides a unique series of meditations for Eucharistic devotion Although each is a separate reflection on the Eucharist in the life of the Church there is an implied centrality of the Sacrament in the life of any Catholic wishing to deepen the life of prayer In this St Francis can be our model and our guide as one of the original pioneers of extra Eucharistic devotion Just as in the thirteenth century his example helped to renew the life of the Church confronted by many crises so in our own day the Church hedged about with conflict and compromise and with declining vocations is seeing a revival of devotion to the Blessed Sacrament as perhaps the first sign of renewal He writes about spirituality as a lived experience of God shared by all whether they know it or not Mark Elvin's book will hopefully deepen our awareness of God's presence in both the Eucharist and the world Rt Rev Patrick O Donoghue Bishop of Lancaster Br Mark Fr Mark Elvins is a Capuchin friar Born in 1939 at Whitstable Br Mark took an MA at London University and a graduate diploma in spirituality at Dublin He is the author of Cardinals and Heraldry and of three other books published by Gracewing Catholic Trivia Gospel Chivalry and Towards a People's Liturgy
